In grand fashion, the Eagles opened their NovaCare Complex practice facility last spring. The spectacular 108,000-square-foot facility offers the very best in terms of space, amenities and care and effort put forth for the players, coaches and staff of the Eagles.

"The NovaCare Complex allows us to go from having one of the worst facilities in the National Football League to the very best of facilities," said team Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie. "It means so much for everyone in this organization to go to work each day and be proud of where they are working, from the executives, to the assistants, to the trainers, and, of course, to the players. Everyone in the organization, I think, is very proud of where they are working. It provides the whole organization with a great atmosphere and enhances the degree of camaraderie because there are all sorts of rooms people can actually spend time with each other as opposed to the setup we had to endure whereby people were so compartmentalized."

Construction is speeding along at the site of the Eagles' spectacular new stadium, due to open in August, 2003. The new, state-of-the-art venue will house 66,000 fans and will be a tribute to the vision of Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie. Eagles fans will have the luxury of improved sightlines, more amenities, a cutting edge audio and video system, and much, much more. Said Lurie at the ground breaking ceremony in June: "As Mayor (John) Street has so often said, 'To move forward as a world-class city, we need world-class stadiums.' Now, with the construction of what I anticipate will truly be an exciting new stadium, the dynamism surrounding the Philadelphia Eagles - along with the image of the city of Philadelphia - will be elevated to new heights."

Under bright, sunny skies, the Eagles were joined by a host of state and local dignitaries - like Mayor John Street and Governor Tom Ridge - at a formal ground breaking ceremony that kicked-off the construction phase of the new stadium.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Eagles Youth Partnership [EYP] is the charitable wing of the club, established in 1995 by Eagles President and CEO, Jeffrey Lurie, and his wife Christina. Executive Director Sarah Martinez-Helfman has developed EYP into one of the most innovative and dynamic not for profit organizations in the Greater Philadelphia region and the National Football League.

Tackling children's health and education issues, EYP teams the Eagles organization and its players with corporate and community partners to deliver services, grants, incentives and messages to children that positively influence their lives.

Below is a list of some of the most important projects undertaken by Eagles Youth Partnership.

The Annual Eagles Carnival

Sunday, August 5, 3:30-7:30 PM. Ticket orders and information: 215-463-5500. EYP's yearly Carnival extravaganza involves all of the players and coaches in a public celebration on the field at Veteran's Stadium. It includes autographs, photographs, interactive games with the players, a free cheerleading clinic, prizes, sports memorabilia auctions, entertainment and a live WYSP radio broadcast. All Carnival proceeds fund the charitable activities of Eagles Youth Partnership including its numerous programs and grants.

Eagles Book Mobile

The Eagles Book Mobile is a 35-foot van that travels to schools, shelters, libraries, United Way member agencies, recreation centers and summer camps to read aloud to children and to give new books to those who would otherwise lack access.

Eagles Pro Bowl Defensive End Hugh Douglas launched this program with a $50,000 contribution in the summer of 2000. Since then, the Eagles Book Mobile has been visiting three sites per day in the spring and summer months and has distributed tens of thousands of multicultural books, primarily to children who do not currently own books.

Partners include: the Hugh Douglas Foundation; University of Pennsylvania Health System; Ametek Foundation; First Book; Children's Literacy Initiative; the Free Library of Philadelphia and the United Way. Look for the Eagles Book Mobile in Allentown, Atlantic City, Bethlehem, Camden, Chester, Coatesville, Darby, Philadelphia, Norristown, Reading, Trenton & Wilmington.

Off the road, Eagles Youth Partnership continues its focus on literacy with more than half a million dollars supporting programs such as Fourth Down Reading Clubs, The Hundred Book Challenge, Philadelphia Reads, First Book and the Summer Reading Campaign, featuring Eagles Fullback, Cecil Martin.

Eagles Eye Mobile

The Eagles Eye Mobile, the autumn counterpart to the Eagles Book Mobile, provides free eye exams and prescription glasses for thousands of underserved children in the community.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Begun in 1996 with a $100,000 grant from Eagles Guard Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles Eye Mobile has provided free eye exams for more than 4700 children and free prescription glasses and follow-up care for all those who have required it.

Partners include: Jermaine Mayberry, Wills Eye Hospital; the Optical Shop at Wills; Independence Blue Cross and Pennsylvania Blue Shield and Lincoln Financial Group Foundation.

Eagles Day of Service

Creating safe spaces to play and learn...

Eagles Butterfly House and Education Center (2001)

Village Eagles Youth Park (2000)

Franklinville Eagles Playground (1999)

Eagles Unity Playground (1998)

Nicetown Playground (1997)

For the past five years, EYP and the entire Eagles organization -- players, staff, coaches and ownership -- have worked together with neighborhood adults and children to build playgrounds and renovate parks in city neighborhoods. In June 2001, the Eagles partnered with the Philadelphia Chapter of the NFL Alumni and the Camden Children's Garden to build the Eagles Butterfly House and Education Center. The new Butterfly House will serve more than half a million people per year; Camden children will access it free of charge.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

EYP, in partnership with Philadelphia Futures, created the Eagles Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among high school football players in the community. "Top Achievers" and their families are honored annually at an awards reception at the NovaCare Complex and at Eagles Training Camp.

In 2001, 75 Top Achievers from Allentown, Camden, Chester and Philadelphia were received this award from Eagles President and CEO Jeffrey Lurie, Head Coach Andy Reid, Pro Bowl tight end Chad Lewis, and Director of College Scouting Marc Ross. In all, more than 400 Top Achievers have been honored since 1996.

After-School Programs

Additional grants are made to ensure that young people have a safe and enriching place to be in the after-school hours.

For more information about EYP, contact Sarah Martinez-Helfman, Executive Director, 215-463-2500

JEFFREY LURIE

Chairman/Chief Executive Officer

The moment was his to seize, and Jeffrey Lurie reached out and enjoyed all that was around him. It was early June and the Eagles were celebrating the official groundbreaking of their soon-to-come stadium. Lurie stood at the podium. The crowd cheered. The time was ripe to peek into the future.

"This is an historic day for Philadelphia," said Lurie, "and a landmark day for the Eagles. The Eagles for the first time in their history, will finally have a world-class stadium of their own. The Eagles will no longer be secondary tenants playing in an inferior stadium."

It was truly historic and significant for Lurie, for the Eagles and for Philadelphia. All of the hard work the organization had put into the last several years was coming to fruition on and off the football field.

Lurie has used a patient, strategic approach to building the Eagles. It's been a four-pronged plan, involving a new practice facility, a new stadium, finding and hiring a dynamic head coach and adding a franchise quarterback.

All of that has become reality. The Eagles moved into the beautiful NovaCare Complex last March. The state-of-the-art stadium is under construction. The Eagles have Andy Reid as the head coach/executive vice president of football operations, and Donovan McNabb is coming off a season in which he was the league's runner up in the Most Valuable Player voting in his first year as a starting NFL quarterback.

As the football team matured into a play-off squad in 2000, key components of Lurie's master plan took shape. Built and designed with the purpose of uniting all facets of the organization, as well as bridging the years of the past with today's Eagles, the NovaCare Complex stands as the largest and finest state-of-the-art practice facility in all of sports.

Another key move Lurie made in the off-season was promoting Reid to executive vice president in charge of football operations, giving the Eagles six years of stability in both the coaching and personnel departments.

Also crucial in the building process is the stadium, which will open in 2003. The football-based stadium has been planned with great care and consideration of the fans' needs and desires, with massive concourses, great sightlines, multiple and easy-to-use video scoreboards among the numerous amenities.

"We put together a plan of building the team and then followed it. We knew it would take some time to get the franchise positioned for success and here we are with an organization that is operating at a very high level on all fronts," says Lurie. "It's been a priority to have a franchise with high character, with positive energy and morale and a synergy between every department. We are attaining that."

While the Eagles haven't been to the Super Bowl yet under Lurie's reign, they have been in the playoffs three seasons and have one of the brightest futures of any team in the league.

Off the field, the organization has been on the cutting edge ever since Lurie took over as owner in 1994 and revamped the way of thinking around the Eagles.

And here is Lurie, on the edge of his seat waiting for the football season.

"It's truly a time to be excited about our football team. We have great leadership in Andy Reid and a young, dynamic team," says Lurie. "To be where we are now, rising and building the right way, it's satisfying to see. We made some strides last year and we know we still have work ahead of us to get to our ultimate goal.

"I feel it's special to own the Philadelphia Eagles. I recognize how passionate our fans are and how supportive they've been. We're all in this together. Our goal is to win multiple Super Bowls."

Since becoming owner of the Eagles, Lurie, who was named NFL Owner of the Year by The Sporting News in 1995 and by Fred Edelstein's Pro Football Insider in 2000, has gone about the business of shaping the football team on and off the field.

He describes his philosophy of ownership as a "partnership between the city, the fans and the team." One of Lurie's primary objectives early in his time in Philadelphia was the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the team's non-profit, charitable wing. Now in its seventh year, the award-winning Eagles Youth Partnership has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and the entire NFL.

In 1998, Lurie initiated a program called "Invest In Yourself" to provide his players a foundation to help serve them after their football careers are finished. The program has been a tremendous success, paving the way for dozens of players to study, learn and "graduate" from the Invest In Yourself program.

Says Lurie, who serves on the NFL's powerful Finance Committee and is on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities: "We care about the players in more ways than how they do on the football field. Of course it's important that they perform, but they are men with families who have lives outside the game. This program helps the players in their lives away from football."

Lurie is a key figure on the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. In 1996 he was the recipient of the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia and a year later was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, an acclaimed group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities.

In addition, Lurie serves on the Board of Directors of Harcourt General and as a director of both the Autism Research Foundation and the National Alliance for Autism Research. During this past spring, in fact, Lurie and the Eagles greeted police officer John Keating, who is bicycling across the country to promote awareness for autism, a lifelong disease that renders children, and later adults, unable to communicate their feelings and emotions. The disease, for which there is currently no cure, affects more than 500,000 people in the United States alone.

"It is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," said Lurie. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done and we all can start by being aware of what autism really is."

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University.

He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a Master's degree in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. Lurie also served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985.

Born on Sept. 8, 1951 in Boston, MA, Lurie now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their two children.

JOE BANNER

President

Long known as one of the NFL's top executives as well as being the point person on key issues involving the Eagles, Joe Banner was named the team's president this past off-season.

It was a reward very deserving for a man who has overseen the day-to-day operations of the franchise since May 6, 1994.

"Joe plays a crucial role in most everything we accomplish. His determination, intelligence and desire for success are invaluable assets to the Philadelphia Eagles," said Jeffrey Lurie, Chairman/Chief Executive Officer of the Eagles.

Banner has been consistent in his support of Lurie's four-pronged plan to make the Eagles the best organization on and off the field in the NFL. Banner was key in the Eagles' successful efforts to secure a partnership with NovaCare, which resulted in the building of the spectacular NovaCare Complex, the 108,000-square foot facility. The NovaCare Complex, which houses the entire organization on a day-to-day basis, is the largest such facility in sports, and has been hailed as the most state-of-the-art building of its kind.

Likewise, his efforts to forge a partnership with the City of Philadelphia to build a crown jewel of a football-based stadium in Philadelphia have been duly complimented. The stadium project broke ground this past spring and will be completed in time for the Eagles to play football in August, 2003.

"This is a very complicated project that required a great deal of diligence and patience," said Philadelphia Mayor of John Street at the ribbon-cutting ceremony, celebrating the opening of the NovaCare Complex. "As I've told Jeff Lurie many times, deals of this nature wouldn't get done without having someone who demonstrates the tenacity and diligence of Joe Banner."

Banner, 48, has been involved in the creation and execution of every department in the organization. Whether it was the restructuring of the football operation and hiring of Andy Reid, the creation of the league's most respected marketing operation, or the formation of the nationally-acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership, he was at the center of what has led the Eagles to being thought of as one of the most dynamic and progressive organizations in all of sports.

Banner's salary-cap expertise has been highlighted in recent years by a USA Today poll of team general managers and NFL executives which listed him as one of the league's most creative and innovative salary cap management experts and contract negotiators. The New York Times hailed him as "the Joe Montana of the salary cap. He's simply the best." CBS Sportline's Len Pasquarelli's says he "should be the poster child for crafty and responsible salary cap management." Banner's salary cap management skills do not go unnoticed within the Eagles organization, as well.

"With all the success of the team last year, most of the credit usually goes to the player and coaches," said head coach/executive vice president of football operations Andy Reid. "But without the support and hard work of the front office, we would not have that success. Joe Banner is a big part of that support. As I've said many times before, Joe is the best as far as managing that salary cap."

While football is a huge focus in his life, Banner also has time for being a devoted husband to his wife, Helaine, and a loving father to daughter Jill (12) and sons Jason (6) and Jonathan (4). The Banner family resides in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Banner also devotes a lot of time and energy to community service and is active in non-profit groups. He is the co-chairman of the Philadelphia City Year Board and is responsible for bringing that program to Philadelphia. Banner is also the chairman of City Year's National Leadership Committee.

This past year, Banner also received a prestigious leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS Program, a charitable organization that aims to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia region.

Of City Year, Banner says: "City Year is extremely important to me because I believe we live in a community and we each have an obligation to try to, beyond ourselves, make our communities better places. For me, City Year is the epitome of something that thinks that way and makes that kind of difference."

Said Lurie of Banner's community involvement: "Joe is invaluable not only to the Philadelphia Eagles organization but to the Philadelphia community as a whole. On the professional side, Joe has been the point person on the most crucial issues facing our organization. Joe's impact on the community, however, is of equal importance."

In 1995, President Bill Clinton appointed Banner to a panel of 10 judges nationwide, which selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. He is also on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Banner (born 2/13/53) is a graduate of Denison University and was a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU-AM 1210.

LEN KOMOROSKI

Senior Vice President - Chief of Business Operations, Eagles Sports and Entertainment

front office with the hiring of Len Komoroski as Vice President-Sales and Marketing. Fifteen months later, with the Eagles sales and marketing efforts earning national acclaim, Komoroski was elevated to the position of Senior Vice President. In 1999, he was named the Chief of Business Operations of Eagles Sports and Entertainment. This newly-created entity manages the Eagles sales and marketing functions as well as the management and operation of the anticipated new football-based stadium, in addition to the business operations of other associated properties.

"Under Len's guidance, we have developed one of the most aggressive and visionary sales teams in all of professional sports," said Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie.

With the Eagles, Komoroski oversees all sales and marketing aspects of the organization, including corporate sales, internet, broadcasting, Penthouse Suites, ticketing, advertising and promotions, non-football media relations, community relations, merchandising, and event presentation, while assisting in the team's facility development and administrative efforts.

Over the past five years, Komoroski has enhanced the organization's sales and marketing capabilities by recruiting some of the top marketing executives within their areas of concentration in the sports field. During that span, he also spearheaded the creation of the Eagles Television Network, developed one of the largest local television packages in the NFL, and brought in-house other properties such as publications. In addition, the franchise has dramatically grown its event capabilities through the Eagles Training Camp, and the advent of "Eagles Fan Fair," as well as creating a merchandising division. In 1997, he was a key figure in securing a 25-year, multi-million dollar partnership with NovaCare that led to the new state-of-the-art corporate headquarters/practice facility. He was recently named to the NFL's inaugural Marketing Committee.

Komoroski came to the Eagles from the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League, with whom he served as the club's Senior Vice President-Chief Operating Officer. In that role, Komoroski oversaw all business operations for the franchise, including sales and marketing and financial and administrative functions while also serving as an alternate governor for the team. He also was a minority shareholder of the club.

During his first season with the Lumberjacks, the franchise realized a 60% increase in attendance - the largest such year-to-year increase in professional hockey, as well as a 300% gain in corporate sales revenue. The over 350,000 fans who attended 1995 'Jacks games helped the club set a Cleveland pro hockey single season total attendance record, which spans 45 years of pro hockey in the market. While with the 'Jacks, Komoroski was a member of the IHL's Marketing Advisory Committee, and was also runner-up in the League's executive of the year vote.

Prior to his tenure in Cleveland, Komoroski spent six and one-half seasons with the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves and their facility, Target Center, serving in a senior management role during the startup of both entities and later as the senior sales and marketing official for both groups. It was with considerable input and guidance from Komoroski that the Target Center became one of the first facilities in pro sports to bear a corporate name from its inception. During his tenure there, the Timberwolves set an NBA all-time attendance record with an average of 26,000 fans per game during their 1989-90 inaugural season and annually ranked among the NBA leaders in both attendance and corporate revenues.

Under his direction, the Wolves were also highly acclaimed for their broadcast, game presentation, and advertising and promotional efforts. He also oversaw the organization's efforts for the 1994 NBA All-Star Weekend at Target Center. During the last two years of his tenure there, the Target Center was tabbed as one of the top six facilities in the nation for gross revenues and event activity by Pollstar.

Komoroski also oversaw an eight-state region as a regional manager for the Miller Sports Group in 1987-88, developing and supervising Miller's relationships with the NBA, NFL, NHL, Major League Baseball, NASCAR, National Hot Rod Association, and minor league baseball properties. Prior to his stint with Miller, Komoroski was an assistant general manager of the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League from 1986-87. From 1982-86, Komoroski performed in various sales and marketing management positions with the Pittsburgh Civic Arena Corporation, which included the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins, and the MISL's Pittsburgh Spirit.

Komoroski serves on the board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress and the National Sports Forum. A graduate of Duquesne University, Len and his wife, Denise, have three daughters, Kristin, Kelly, and Jamie, and a son, Zachary.

DON SMOLENSKI

Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

In December of 1998 the Eagles bolstered their front office with the hiring of Don Smolenski as the club's Vice President/

Chief Financial Officer.

Early in 2000, in the midst of negotiating a deal for a new stadium and efforts to finance the new Eagles NovaCare Complex beginning to unfold, Smolenski was elevated to Senior Vice President. In the year since, the organization has broken ground on a new stadium set to open in 2003 and moved into their new home at One NovaCare Way. Known for his effective, easy-going style, Smolenski is now a part of one of the most well-respected front offices in the National Football League.

"With his broad range of thinking, Don has helped to develop ways of melding the business facets of the Eagles organization with the football," said Eagles president Joe Banner. "He is one of the true unsung heroes of the stadium whose behind the scenes work made a huge difference."

With the continuous expansion of the Eagles organization Smolenski certainly has a full schedule. Among his various responsibilities, in addition to the economics of the team, the NovaCare Complex and working with Joe Banner on stadium finance models, he is responsible for every aspect of the day to day financial operations.

Smolenski came to the Eagles from the International Hockey League where he was the Chief Financial Officer. During his tenure, he oversaw all league financial issues and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league expand from 12 to 19 teams. He also spearheaded the development of a salary cap and several other cost management programs as well as interfaced with each of the team finance directors.

Prior to his term with the IHL, Smolenski worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An avid runner, Smolenski has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. After graduating with a BA in Biology from Amherst College he continued on to earn his Masters in Accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake and Shane.

SARAH MARTINEZ-HELFMAN

Executive Director - Eagles Youth Partnership

When Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Martinez-Helfman as its Executive Director. Now in her seventh year, Martinez-Helfman already has shaped and molded Eagles Youth Partnership into a powerful vehicle through which the Eagles, their players, and the program's corporate partners have made – and will continue to make – a meaningful difference in children's lives. Tackling children's health and education in the Greater Philadelphia region, EYP develops and administers programs that address hardship at its core.

"Sarah's energy, her commitment, and her drive," said Jeffrey Lurie, "have helped make Eagles Youth Partnership one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and the NFL. Sarah has been with EYP since its inception. She hit the ground running and her pace has not slowed since. Her commitment to EYP extends beyond a professional level. With Sarah, EYP and its direction is an intensely personal commitment. That is why she has been, and will continue to be, such a driving force behind EYP's focus – helping improve the health and well being of Philadelphia-area youngsters."

Martinez-Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

On the corporate end, Martinez-Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Martinez-Helfman earned her B.A. in English Literature and her M.S. degree in Counseling Psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and perceptual processing. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA.

ANDY REID

back on the football map. After a 5-11 mark in his first season, he led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

His vision, his dedication, his passion, and his organizational skills are impeccable. Four months after leading the Eagles to their first playoff berth in 4 years, Reid was promoted to head coach/executive vice president of football operations.

Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie, who when he had tabbed Reid to be the Eagles' head coach, said he was looking for a CEO of the football operation, "Andy is somebody who sees the big picture at all times. He understands the teamwork approach in a big way. He assembled a terrific staff. He brought such a positive, self-confident attitude here from Day One. He understands the building blocks of what it takes to lead this team to the Super Bowl. It's contagious throughout the organization, even in departments that have nothing to do with football. He wants to bring people together. It's remarkable to see."

Reid came to the Eagles after spending the previous seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Mike Holmgren. With Green Bay, Reid helped the Pack reach the playoffs six straight times from 1993-98. During that span, Green Bay defeated

New England in Super Bowl XXXI and reached the NFL's title game again the following year after earning the NFC crown with a victory over San Francisco.

The Plan:

"The important thing is to lay a plan, and then follow it step by step no matter how small or large each one by itself may seem." This quote by Charles A. Lindbergh is scribed behind Reid's desk and reflects his coaching philosophy.

From the first day Reid set foot in the Eagles office, he orchestrated a plan on what it was going to take to make this a championship-level team. That plan has been evident throughout the last two years as the atmosphere surrounding this team has been a reflection of the style of its head coach.

At the conclusion of the 1999 season, Reid's first at the Eagles' helm, the new field general implemented a change in attitude. Although the Eagles finished with a 5-11 record, Reid made it a priority to implement an upbeat and positive attitude as the Eagles possessed one of the youngest teams in the league.

Also evident during his first two seasons as Eagles head coach has been Reid's penchant for thorough preparation, attention to detail, and the demeanor of a hands-on CEO-type.

Said Reid's agent Bob LaMonte of his client before the Eagles '99 regular season got underway, "Andy is a CEO type of coach. He's like [Seattle's] Mike Holmgren or [Denver's] Mike Shanahan, a guy who goes beyond just the Xs and Os. He's an organizer and a manager and he's really, really intelligent."

Said Holmgren of Reid's days as an NFL assistant, "It was his curiosity, the questions he would ask, his note taking. He was just a sponge. He wanted to know everything that he could. He related well with the coaching staff, and the other players loved him."

Even the NFL league office has taken note of Reid's organizational skills. In 2000, he was named by commissioner Paul Tagliabue as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee Coaches Subcommittee.

The Binder:

Already a meticulously organized man when serving under Holmgren as a Packers' assistant, Reid began keeping a notebook - a three-ring binder - that would help prepare him to one day become a successful head coach.

Wrote Phil Sheridan of the Philadelphia Inquirer, "As he is wont to do, Reid seized the idea and took it to the extreme. By the time he became a head coach, his head-coaching notebook was roughly six inches thick."

Reid saved the old ideas and devised new plans, plans that he would implement when he became a head coach. But this was not about game-plans and Xs and Os. It was about how to build a winning organization. It included everything - practice schedules; travel schedules; off-season schedules for players by position; scouting reports; notes from speeches Holmgren gave his troops before, during, and after games; biographical information on fellow members of the coaching fraternity (so that he might one day assemble a staff of his own); scouting tips; information on player programs to help players better prepare themselves for their post-football careers; and much, much more.

The Man:

LaMonte, who knows Reid perhaps as well as anyone, knows that the Eagles' coach is well rounded despite being a workaholic. "You can sit and talk to Andy about almost anything," said LaMonte. "He's a well-rounded guy."

Wrote Sheridan: "Reid is a cross between the real go-getter at the office who everyone knows will make vice president first (but likes anyway) and the cheerful brother-in-law who shows up with all the power tools when help is needed around the house."

Reid himself attributes his nature to his days as an offensive lineman in high school and college, saying "I'm glad to be of offensive-line-man roots. That way you don't lose perspective amidst the glamour, the monetary things. You have that hard-work thing ingrained in your brain. You understand you haven't gotten to where you are without hard work."

Indeed, that work ethic may have been forged even before Reid put on football pads. Growing up in Los Angeles near Dodger Stadium, Reid's mother, Elizabeth, was a radiologist while his father, Walter, was an artist working primarily on backdrops for theatrical sets. Father and son would leave their house at 4:30 a.m. Walter, who worked across the street from a junior high, would drop Andy off at the school and the younger Reid would work on various projects in the wood shop.

Today, Reid's work ethic is evident in how he approaches his job. His well-rounded nature is evidenced by the fact that he is a skilled craftsman who can make cabinets and clocks. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars and, in fact, owns a 1928 "Model A" Ford.

And his personal experiences, which include a stint as a columnist for the Provo, UT, Daily Herald during his days at BYU, have given him a continuing source of enjoyment - writing. "I had my own little column," said Reid (who once longed to be a writer for Sports Illustrated) of his days as a player and sportswriter at BYU. "I loved Jim Murray (a long-time columnist with the LA Times). I wrote one of these cutesy deals, trying to write like Jim. (laughing) The editors took it easy on me. I enjoyed writing. I still do. I keep a journal to this day. It's a great release."

Climbing the Coaching Ladder:

Reid, who has an extensive and diverse coaching background, enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers' quarterbacks coach, working with all-pro Brett Favre during the 1997-98 seasons. Reid took over that role in February of '97 after Marty Mornhinweg departed Green Bay to become the San Francisco 49ers' offensive coordinator under head coach Steve Mariucci, the original QB coach on Holmgren's Packer staff. Just weeks earlier, in December of '96, Holmgren made known the degree of respect he had for Reid's knowledge and talent as a coach when he quietly placed the "supervisory" tag on the then-tight ends coach. That tag would prevent NFL clubs from hiring Reid as anything other than a head coach unless given permission to do so by Holmgren. (A year earlier, when Mariucci had left the Packers' to take the head coaching job at Cal-Berkeley, Reid was offered - but turned down - an opportunity to become the Golden Bears' offensive coordinator. Then, when Mariucci became the 49ers' head coach in January of '97, he expressed interest in bringing Reid to San Francisco as offensive coordinator. Holmgren, however, had already placed the "supervisory" tag on Reid and said that, if the 49ers were to seek permission to approach Reid, he would deny the request.)

In 1997, Reid's first campaign overseeing the Pack's passers, Green Bay won its second straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season, this time sharing the distinction with Detroit running back Barry Sanders. Earlier that year, Jim McMahon, a veteran of 15 NFL seasons and the BYU quarterback Reid had once protected as an offensive lineman, retired from the game. Two years later, when Reid became the Eagles' head coach, McMahon looked back on 1997 and joked, "I knew it was time to retire when a guy who blocked for me in college was supposed to teach me how to play quarterback. Seriously, though, I was always impressed with how thorough and prepared Andy was. He knew the Packers' offense better than anyone."

Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid achieved notable success overseeing the Packers' tight ends, while at the same time assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, the Pack's tight ends were a consistently productive lot. Reid's charges were particularly effective in 1995 and '96, respectively, when young Mark Chmura and veteran Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Chmura's selection to the Pro Bowl (the first for a Packers' tight end since 1983) came after he hauled in 54 passes, Jackson's after he made 10 TD receptions and played a major role in the Pack's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

It was in Reid's first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged the young assistant to learn the entire offensive system inside and out, not just the roles of the offensive line and tight ends. "Mike kept telling me, 'You've done that (coached the offensive line). Strive to learn the whole offense.'"

Soon, he began to learn the intricacies of the Packers' offense as they applied to each position, absorbing knowledge of the running game from Lovat and of the passing game from Holmgren and Sherman Lewis.

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant on Lavell Edwards' 1982 BYU staff. It was at BYU, in fact, that Reid met and worked alongside Holmgren, who served as the Cougars' QB coach from 1982-85.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped the Gators lead the nation in passing and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85) while serving as that school's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and strength coach. He then continued to build his coaching reputation by developing quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

Family Man:

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid, now 43, has a brother 10 years his senior, Reginald. Raised not far from Dodger Stadium, Reid was a devoted fan of both the Dodgers and the NFL's Rams (Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones in particular). He went on to attend John Marshall High in LA and later matriculated at Brigham Young University where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

It was at a physical education class at BYU that Reid met the woman who would become his wife, Tammy. After a courtship that began primarily with competitive athletic endeavors such as racquetball and tennis, Reid, whose own parents had not been particularly religious, converted to the Mormon faith practiced by Tammy's family. "What attracted me to him more than anything was his character. He's just a really good guy, very honorable and very conscientious."

Today, they have five children, each of whom was born in a different state as Reid literally moved up the coaching ladder - sons Garrett, 18 (4/13/83); Britt, 16, (4/28/85); and Spencer, 9 (6/9/92); and daughters Crosby, 13 (3/17/88); and Drew Ann, 11 (3/9/90). A devout family man, Reid emphasizes his desire to properly prioritize the things in his life. For him, family comes first. Said Reid, "Everything I do outside of [football], I try to direct toward my family."

ROD DOWHWOWER

Offensive Coordinator

One day after becoming head coach of the Eagles in 1999, Andy Reid named Rod Dowhower as the club's offensive coordinator.

Said Reid, "He's one of the fine offensive minds in the National Football League. He's been a head coach, a coordinator, a quarterbacks coach ... he's kind of done it all and is very well respected throughout the league."

Dowhower implemented Reid's version of the West Coast offense over the past two seasons and has played a major role in the development of 2nd-year QB Donovan McNabb, who quickly became an MVP candidate in 2000, his first full season as a starter. McNabb threw for 3,365 yards and 21 TDs and led the team in rushing en route to earning Pro Bowl honors and finishing 2nd in MVP voting by the Associated Press.

Over the course of his 35-year coaching career that includes 20 seasons in the NFL ranks and another 15 on the collegiate level, Dowhower, 57, has learned the ropes from some of football's most innovative and successful minds including Bill Walsh, Joe Gibbs, Don Coryell, Dick Vermeil, and Dan Reeves.

A former All-America quarterback himself at San Diego State University, Dowhower has helped develop a plethora of successful pro and college passers, including John Elway, Mark Rypien, Neil Lomax, Brian Sipe, Jim Hart, Turk Schonert, Vinny Testaverde, Steve Dils, and Chris Miller.

The quarterbacks coach of the Washington

Redskins from 1990-92, Dowhower helped that club earn one Super Bowl title and three straight playoff appearances. In fact, Dowhower played an integral role in the success of the 1991 Redskins, who scored a league-best 485 points and capped that season with a victory over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. That Super Bowl win was fittingly crowned when Dowhower's protege, QB Mark Rypien, earned game MVP honors after passing for 292 yards and 2 TDs. Rypien also earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and numerous 1st team All-NFC honors that year when he guided the Redskins to a 17-2 record overall while posting remarkable numbers as a passer - 3,564 yards passing (1st in NFC), a league-high +17 TD-to-INT ratio (28 vs. 11), and the league's second best passer rating (97.9).

The Cardinals offensive coordinator under Jim Hanifan from 1982-84, Dowhower helped the Big Red's 1984 unit sport the top-ranked passing attack in the NFC (3rd in the NFL with 266.4 ypg). That same Cards' offense set nine club records as QB Neil Lomax (345-560-4,619-19TDs) and WR Roy Green (78 catches for a league-high 1,555 yards) earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Dowhower's high-powered attack also saw running back Ottis Anderson grab 70 passes that season.

After earning All-America honors as a quarterback under Coryell at San Diego State, where he also was a teammate of Joe Gibbs, Dowhower began his coaching career as an assistant under Coryell. He spent the 1966-72 seasons on Coryell's SDSU staff and subsequently followed Coryell to the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. Dowhower went on to serve a stint with the Denver Broncos and a second tour of duty with the Cardinals before becoming head coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 1985-86.

Following his two seasons in Indianapolis, the Santa Barbara, CA, native served as an offensive coordinator and/or quarterbacks coach with the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins, and Cleveland Browns before returning to the college ranks as the head coach at Vanderbilt.

Most recently, Dowhower spent the 1997-98 campaigns with the New York Giants, tutoring quarterbacks under head coach Jim Fassel.

In addition to his tenure as the head man at Vanderbilt, Dowhower also was a college head coach at Stanford (1979). Other coaching stops on the collegiate level included stints as an assistant at UCLA (1974-75 under Vermeil), Boise State (1976), and Stanford (1977-78 under Walsh).

It was during his tenure at Stanford that Dowhower recruited and coached John Elway. While there, he also tutored future NFL great wideout James Lofton. Years earlier he had primed two SDSU receivers for future stardom in the pro ranks, Haven Moses and Isaac Curtis.

Born April 5, 1943 in Ord, NE, Dowhower attended Santa Barbara (CA) High School (the same school that another great quarterback, Randall Cunningham, would later attend). Dowhower and his wife, Nancy, have two sons, Brian and Deron.

JIM JOHNSON

Defensive Coordinator

On January 22, 1999, Eagles head coach Andy Reid targeted and hired Jim Johnson as the Eagles new defensive coordinator. A veteran of 15 seasons as a NFL assistant, Johnson proved to be the right man to lead the team's defense in becoming one of the premier units in the NFL.

The Eagles defense knows only one way to play defense and that is to attack. Johnson's aggressive style allowed the Eagles to force 31 turnovers and finish 6th in the NFL with 50 sacks in 2000.

Another benchmark of this unit a year ago was their ability to throw up a wall inside the red zone and on third downs. They limited opponents to 14 TDs in 40 attempts (5th in the NFL) when in the red zone and only 72 first downs in 221 attempts on 3rd down (2nd in the NFL).

In 1999, Johnson's unit forced a NFL-best 46 turnovers, including a team-record 5 interceptions returned for touchdowns.

With regard to the amount of turnovers the Eagles forced Johnson said, "It's something we've emphasized. When it happens, you feel good about it. The only stats we care about are points given up and turnovers. You've seen that win games. You always have a chance when you do that in a close ball game."

In 1998, he helped the Seahawks lead the AFC and rank second in the NFL with 53 sacks. Their defense also logged 10 TDs in '98 (including eight INTs returned for scores, 2nd most in NFL history).

Johnson arrived in Seattle after a four-year tenure with the Indianapolis Colts. After serving as that club's linebackers coach for two seasons, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1996. His 1997 unit ranked 4th in the NFL in pass defense and 10th overall in terms of total yards allowed.

Prior to joining the Colts, Johnson spent eight seasons as an assistant with the Arizona Cardinals (1986-93). After overseeing the Cards' defensive line for four seasons, Johnson excelled as the Big Red's secondary coach. It was in that role that Johnson helped a pair of his charges, safety Tim McDonald and cornerback Robert Massey, reach the Pro Bowl. At the same time, another of Johnson's young players, cornerback Aeneas Williams, began his rise to stardom. It was under Johnson's tutelage in 1991 that Williams became the first rookie cornerback to lead the league in interceptions (6) since 1981.

Johnson began his coaching career as head coach at Missouri Southern (1967-68), before serving four-year tenures at Drake as defensive coordinator and Indiana as linebackers coach. From 1977-83, Johnson served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Notre Dame, a stint that included a national championship in 1977.

An all-conference quarterback himself at Missouri (where he played in the same backfield with former Colts' executive Bill Tobin), Johnson went on to spend two seasons with the Buffalo Bills as a tight end (1963-64).

A native of Maywood, IL, the 60-year old Johnson (born 5/26/41) has a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education from Missouri. Today, he and his wife, Vicky, reside in suburban Philadelphia. They have two children, Scott (36) and Michelle (33).

JOHN HARBAUGH

Special Teams

Dubbed by head coach Andy Reid as "one of the top special teams coaches in the league," John Harbaugh, 39, enters his fourth season in Philadelphia after being hired on February 18, 1998.

Under Harbaugh's direction, the Eagles special teams units has improved in many categories from season to season and the 2000 campaign was no exception. The return game of Brian Mitchell and the reliable left foot of David Akers proved to be a spark for the Eagles a year ago. Mitchell returned both a kickoff and a punt for touchdowns while leading the Eagles to an average drive start of the 31.8 yd.-line (2nd in the NFL) and Akers set a club record with 121 points and a showed a penchant for late-game heroics. Overall, Harbaugh's units ranked in the top ten in 7 of the 12 major special teams categories in the NFL. For his efforts, Harbaugh was one of five nominees by his peers as the league's top special teams coach.

Dubbed "Harbaugh's Heroes," the coverage teams have improved steadily over the last three years. The punt coverage unit has improved from 10.7 yds. per return in 1997 to 8.0 in 2000 and the kickoff coverage has followed suit (23.5 yds. per return in 1997 to 21.1 in 2000). In addition, the punt return average has grown from 7.5 yds. in 1997 to 10.2 yds. in 2000.

1984 at Western Michigan. Three years later, he joined the University of Pittsburgh staff, serving under his uncle, head coach Mike Gottfried (now a college football analyst for ESPN).

After a one-year stint at Morehead State, Harbaugh spent eight seasons (1989-96) as assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati. Harbaugh then joined Cam Cameron's Indiana staff for the 1997 campaign as defensive backs and special teams coach. That year, the Hoosiers' Joey Eloms finished 2nd in the Big Ten Conference in kickoff returns with a 25.0-yard average.

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire life. His father, Jack, is the head football coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, is a quarterback for the Detroit Lions. Other relatives in the sports spotlight include Mike Gottfried, his cousin, Mark Gottfried, the head basketball coach at Alabama, and his brother-in-law, Tom Crean, the head basketball coach at Marquette.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back.

John and his wife, Ingrid, reside in suburban Philadelphia.

TOMMY BRASHER

Defensive Line

Tommy Brasher (pronounced BRAY-zure) is in his second tour of duty with the Eagles after being named the club's defensive line coach on 1/22/99. Now 60, Brasher served in the same capacity with the Birds in 1985 as a member of then-head coach Marion Campbell's staff.

Under Brasher's guidance in 2000, the defensive line became one of the strengths as the unit accounted for 41 of the team's 50 sacks (6th in the NFL). DE Hugh Douglas earned a starting nod in the Pro Bowl with a career-high 15 sacks, while first round draft pick DT Corey Simon exploded onto the scene in the NFL with a rookie club record 9.5 sacks.

Prior to joining the Birds, Brasher enjoyed a successful seven-year stint as the Seattle Seahawks' defensive line coach.

During his tenure in Seattle, Brasher saw two of his lineman - defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy and defensive end Michael Sinclair - earn multiple Pro Bowl appearances. Kennedy was selected following the 1992-96 and 1998 seasons, while Sinclair was voted in after each of the last three campaigns (1996-98). Kennedy was also named defensive player of the year in 1992.

In addition to serving as the Eagles' defensive line coach in 1985, Brasher also held identical posts at New England (1982-84), Atlanta (1986-89), and Tampa Bay (1990). In his one season with the Eagles, two of his defensive ends notched 13 sacks apiece - Greg Brown and a rookie named Reggie White.

An all-conference selection himself as a linebacker at Arkansas from 1962-63, Brasher was a college teammate of Cowboys' owner Jerry Jones and former Dolphins and Cowboys head coach

After beginning his coaching career with a six-year stint on the high school level, Brasher's alma mater provided him with his first collegiate coaching assignment when he became the Razorbacks defensive assistant in 1970. He sandwiched stops at Virginia Tech (1971), NE Louisiana (1974, 1976), and Southern Methodist (1977-81) around a one-

Born on 12/30/40, Brasher attended El Dorado High in his hometown and birthplace of El Dorado, AR. Today, he and his wife, LaNelle, have two daughters, Melodie and Christie, and two grandsons, Nicholas and Brennan.

JUAN CASTILLO

Offensive Line

Juan Castillo is in his seventh season with the Eagles and his fourth as the club's offensive line coach. Castillo was one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by head coach Andy Reid in 1999.

Castillo originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach. After two years with multiple changes along the line, Castillo's unit became a force in 2000 as C Bubba Miller, LG John Welbourn, RG Jermaine Mayberry, LT Tra Thomas and RT Jon Runyan started in all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests. That unit paved the way for the 4th highest rushing avg. in the league (4.7 yds. per carry), the emergence of 2nd year QB Donovan McNabb, a league MVP candidate, and one of the greatest rushing performances in club history as RB Duce Staley piled up 201 yards on opening day at Dallas.

Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) caught the eye of Rhodes. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including tackles Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles' 1996 first round pick, and Earl Dotson, a third round pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1993. In that same span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks ('93), and Buffalo Bills ('92).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio

Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 41-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their three sons, Gregory, John, and Andres.

BRAD CHILDRESS

Quarterbacks

Brad Childress enters his 3rd season as the Eagles quarterbacks coach. The 44-year old Childress was named to his current post on January 12, 1999, just one day after Andy Reid took over as the team's head coach.

Childress is emerging as a young and talented offensive mind as other NFL teams pursued him for vacant coordinator positions this past offseason. Under Childress' tutelage, Donovan McNabb learned the intricacies of the West Coast offense as a rookie and then quickly became an MVP candidate in 2000, his first full season as a starter. McNabb threw for 3,365 yards and 21 TDs and led the team in rushing en route to earning Pro Bowl honors and finishing 2nd in MVP voting by the Associated Press.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Childress orchestrated one of the nation's most productive offenses at the University of Wisconsin, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1992-98.

During his tenure at Wisconsin, the Badgers played in five bowl games, including a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA on January 1, 1999. Under his direction, the Badgers possessed one of the nation's top-ranked offenses, setting a school record and ranking fourth in Big Ten Conference history with 455.2 yards per game in 1993. That squad also ranked 8th in the nation in rushing, 12th in total offense and 25th in passing, while establishing the best-ever Big Ten mark for pass completion percentage (67.5).

In his eight seasons overall at Wisconsin, the Badgers' led the conference in rushing three times and, in 1995, set a UW mark by averaging 221.7 passing yards per game. The school's all-time single-season leaders in passing (Darrell Bevell), receiving (Lee DeRamus), rushing (current NY Giants RB Ron Dayne), and scoring (Dayne) all flourished under Childress. In addition, Eagles FB Cecil Martin was a Badger during Childress' tenure and lead the way for Dayne.

A 1978 graduate of Eastern Illinois, Childress began his coaching career with a seven-year stint at Illinois. It was there, under Childress' instruction, that Fighting Illini WR David Williams set a Big Ten record for receptions (101 in 1984), a mark that still stands today.

Then, after spending the 1985 season as the quarterbacks coach on Rod Dowhower's Indianapolis Colts' staff, he returned to the collegiate ranks for the next 13 seasons with stops at Northern Arizona (1986-89), and Utah before moving to Wisconsin. It was during the first of his three seasons as offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona that Childress first worked with Reid.

Childress and his wife, Dru-Ann, have four children: sons Andrew, Christopher, and Kyle, and daughter Cara. Born 6/27/56 in Aurora, IL, Childress attended Marmion Military High School.

DAVID CULLEY

Wide Receivers

A veteran of 23 years in the coaching profession, David Culley joined the Eagles as the club's wide receivers coach on January 19, 1999.

The 45-year old Culley came to the Eagles after a three-year stint as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season. One of his pupils in Pittsburgh was current Eagles WR Charles Johnson.

A native of Sparta, TN, and a former quarterback himself at Vanderbilt University, Culley broke into the coaching ranks in 1978 when he oversaw the running backs at Austin Peay University. He next returned to his alma mater to coach the Commodores' receivers from 1979-81. Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a three-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana, where he tutored current Eagles RB/KR Brian Mitchell. Under Culley's direction, Mitchell became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 5000 yards and rush for over 3000 yards in a career.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the SEC from 1991-93.

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers' single-season record 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route

LESLIE FRAZIER

Defensive Backs

In his second season as the Eagles defensive backs coach in 2000, Frazier oversaw one of the team's more talented positions with a trio of cornerbacks - Troy Vincent, Bobby Taylor and Al Harris - and one of the top free safeties in the league, Brian Dawkins. As a result, Vincent earned his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl as the defensive backs were responsible for 14 of the team's 19 interceptions. Dawkins earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 1999 campaign.

Following a successful playing career with the Chicago Bears, Frazier enjoyed a nine-year stint as the head coach at Trinity (IL) College and two seasons as an assistant at Illinois.

Frazier began his coaching career in 1988 when he was hired by Trinity College (now Trinity International University) as that school's first-ever head coach.

Frazier built the Trinity program from the ground up and quickly developed the NAIA institution into two-time Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference Champions. In his nine seasons at the helm, Trinity produced a number of NFL caliber players, including former Eagles' WR Karl Hankton. In fact, so great was Frazier's impact on the Trinity program, the school named its football field after him when he departed in 1997 to join the staff at Illinois as defensive backs coach.

Now 42, Frazier was a cornerback with the Bears from 1981-86. A stellar player in his own right - Frazier was named to the 1985 "All-Madden Team" by then-CBS analyst John Madden - he led the Bears in interceptions for three consecutive seasons and finished his five-year career with 20 INTs overall.

In 1985, Frazier was an integral part of a renowned Bears' defensive unit - led by coordinator Buddy Ryan - that led the NFL in virtually every category en route to a lopsided win over the Patriots in Super Bowl XX.

A teammate of Frazier's on that '85 Bears squad was linebacker Ron Rivera, who serves as the Eagles linebackers coach.

An All-America selection as a cornerback at Alcorn State, Frazier was a teammate - and for two years a roommate - of fellow Braves' cornerback Roynell Young, who went on to become the Eagles' first round draft pick in 1980. Both Frazier and Young went on to appear as starting cornerbacks in the Super Bowl - Frazier with the '85 Bears and Young with the '80 Eagles.

An all-around athlete, Frazier also was a standout first baseman/outfielder at Alcorn, and for two seasons served as a team captain.

Born (4/3/59) and raised in Columbus, Mississippi, Frazier attended S.D. Lee High before earning a degree in business administration from Alcorn State.

Today, Frazier and his wife, Gale, have three children, sons Kieron (16) and Corey (9), and a daughter, Chantel (13).

One year later, McDermott was promoted to defensive assistant/quality control coach.

From 1994-1997, McDermott was a safety at the College of William and Mary, earning all-conference honors in 1997 and Academic all-conference honors in 1996 and 1997. In 1998, he was the recipient of the prestigious Benjamin Ewell Award for his tremendous leadership and excellence on campus and in the community.

In 1998, McDermott began his coaching career at William and Mary as the defensive backs coach and then as the school's outside linebackers coach.

A 1993 graduate of LaSalle HS, McDermott was named All-Southeastern Pennsylvania at defensive back in 1992. An all-around athlete, he was also the national prep school wrestling champion in his junior and senior year and lettered in track twice.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, the 27-year old McDermott earned bachelor degrees in both business finance and marketing. Sean is school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, Melvin led the Tigers to a school-record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards en route to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his tenure at Occidental, Melvin served as the offensive coordinator/offensive

RON RIVERA

Linebackers

On January 22, 1999, Ron Rivera joined Andy Reid's staff as the Eagles linebackers coach. A former NFL linebacker with the Chicago Bears, Rivera came to the Eagles after spending the 1997-98 seasons in the Windy City as the Bears' defensive quality control coach.

In his two seasons in Philadelphia, Rivera has played a big role in the development of MLB Jeremiah Trotter, who has become one of the top linebackers in the league and started for the NFC in the Pro Bowl following the 2000 season.

With Rivera and Leslie Frazier, the Eagles' DBs coach, the Birds' staff boasts two men who won championship rings as players with the '85 Bears. Both Rivera and Frazier, a cornerback, played under then-Bears coordinator - and eventual Eagles head coach - Buddy Ryan that year when Chicago defeated New England in Super Bowl XX.

Rivera first entered the NFL as the Bears' second round draft pick in 1984. Primarily an outside linebacker, he played in 149 games, including 12 postseason contests during his nine-year career in Chicago, posting 14 interceptions and 7 sacks.

During his Bears career, Rivera was also known for his time and energy to the community. He earned the Bears' 1989 Ed Block Courage Award and was named the club's Man of the Year in 1988.

Immediately following his NFL playing career, Rivera spent four years as a television analyst covering the Bears and college football for WGN-TV and SportsChannel Chicago. He then moved into the coaching ranks with the Bears and, in fact, credits the late Walter Payton with helping bring him onto the Bears' staff in 1997. Payton was at that time a member of the Bears' Board of Directors.

A consensus All-America selection as a linebacker at California, Rivera finished his collegiate career ranked fourth on the school's all-time tackle list with 336 stops. With 22 career sacks, including a school-record 13 in 1983, he still ranks 3rd on the Golden Bears' all-time charts behind DE Regan Upshaw (28.0) and current Eagles' DT Brandon Whiting (24.5). Rivera also set a Cal record for most tackles-for-a-loss in a season with 26.5 in 1983.

Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, a former basketball player at California and former assistant coach with the WNBA's Washington Mystics, have two children, Christopher (15) and Courtney (8). Stephanie served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Trinity International University (Deerfield, IL) before taking a similar position with the ABL's Chicago Condors (1997-98).

Rivera was born January 7, 1962 in Fort Ord, CA. With his father being an officer in the Army, Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington, D.C., and Maryland prior to moving to central California, where he attended Seaside High School.

PAT SHURMUR

Tight Ends/Asst. Offensive Line

After 11 seasons as an assistant coach on the college level, this former All-America center and team captain at Michigan State comes into his second season as an NFL assistant as part of head coach Andy Reid's initial staff in Philadelphia in 1999. The 35-year old oversees the Eagles' tight ends.

In 2000, Shurmur received well-deserved praise for the development of TE Chad Lewis, who led NFC tight ends with 69 receptions for 735 yards and 3 TDs en route to being named the starter for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford as an offensive line coach in charge of the centers and guards. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal offensive line allowed the fewest sacks per pass attempt in the PAC 10 Conference and, in the process, helped first-year quarterback Todd Husak become the third quarterback in Stanford history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.

Prior to his tenure at Stanford, Shurmur spent 10 seasons at Michigan State instructing the Spartans' tight ends, special teams, and offensive line. Under his guidance MSU developed three tight ends who went on to the NFL: Ty Hallock (Jaguars/ Bears), Duane Young (Chargers/Bills), and Mitch Lyons (Falcons/Steelers). In addition, Shurmur helped kick returner Derrick Mason establish a school record with 2,575 career kickoff return yards.

Shurmur himself was a four-year letter winner at Michigan State, earning All-America honors in 1987. That same year, Shurmur co-captained a Spartans squad that defeated USC and Trojan quarterback Rodney Peete in the Rose Bowl. A solid student as well, he earned his MBA in financial administration as a senior. As such, the Dearborn Heights, MI, native became the first graduate student to play at Michigan State.

After signing as a rookie free agent with the Green Bay Packers in 1988, Shurmur was released during training camp and subsequently began his coaching career, becoming a graduate assistant with the Spartans that fall.

A product of Divine Child High School in Dearborn, Pat comes from a football family. His uncle, the late Fritz Shurmur, served as the Green Bay Packers' defensive coordinator from 1994-98, helping that club win two NFC championships and one Super Bowl title in that span.

Born 4/14/65, Pat and his wife, Jennifer (a former swimmer at Michigan State), have three children, daughters Allyson (9) and Erica (7), and son Kyle (4).

STEVE SPAGNUOLO

Defensive Backs

A veteran of 15 seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks and two years with the World/NFL Europe League, Steve Spagnuolo is in his 3rd season in Philadelphia. After spending the first two years as a defensive assistant/quality control coach, Spagnuolo (pronounced SPAG-no-low) now joins Leslie Frazier as an additional defensive backs coach responsible for the safeties.

The 41-year old Spagnuolo spent the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator of NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy, who finished second in the league in total defense en route to a World Bowl appearance. In fact, four of the six linebackers and nine of the 11 defensive starters he tutored went on to play in the NFL. Spagnuolo also served as the defensive line and special teams coach of the Barcelona Dragons in 1992.

A native of Grafton, MA, Spagnuolo has served as a collegiate assistant coach at Massachusetts, Lafayette, Connecticut, Maine, Rutgers, and Bowling Green. Prior to his stint at Maine, where he served as the Black Bears' defensive coordinator, Spagnuolo spent four months as a scout for the San Diego Chargers.

Born December 21, 1959 in Writinsville, MA, Spagnuolo attended Grafton HS. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield (MA) College and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts.

TED WILLIAMS

Running Backs

Ted Williams is in his seventh season with the Eagles and his 5th in the role of running backs coach. Williams' first two years with the Birds were spent overseeing the club's tight ends.

As running backs coach, Williams tutored a 1,000-yard rusher from 1997-99. During the 1999 campaign, Staley rushed for 1,273 yards on 325 carries after a 1,065 yard (258 carries) performance in '98. A year earlier, Ricky Watters paced the club with 1,110 yards on 285 attempts. Equally impressive is the fact that Staley gained 3,064 yards from scrimmage in those two seasons which computes to 38.2% of the Eagles offense during that span. Only Marshall Faulk's 40.4% tops Staley's numbers over that time.

Williams, who scouted Staley at the University of South Carolina and recommended that the Eagles make him their third round draft pick in 1997, is credited with Staley's emergence as a solid NFL starter.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Williams coached at the University of Arizona, Washington State, and on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, where he developed All-America linebackers Ken Norton, Jr. and Carnell Lake, as well as a number of heralded running backs.

A basketball and baseball star himself at Centennial High in Compton, CA, Williams earned a place in the Cal Poly-Pomona University baseball Hall of Fame. A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a Master's degree, a second undergraduate degree in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State-Los Angeles in 1968.

On May 21, 2001, Tom Heckert was named as the Eagles director of player personnel. In this role, Heckert will work closely with head coach/executive vice president of football operations Andy Reid in all player personnel matters while managing the player personnel department, including the college and pro scouting departments.

"I was looking for a guy that's a hard worker and someone who can identify good football players," said Reid. "I also wanted someone who has a strong opinion about players and will stick with that opinion. Tom fits those qualities. He's spent 10 years in the business and he grew up in this business. That's important. He knows the college game and the pro game, having been a college scout and a pro personnel director. Plus, he's very organized. He's going to be a tremendous asset to the Philadelphia Eagles."

Heckert, 33, joined the Eagles after a 10-year stint as a member of the Miami Dolphins player personnel department, including the 2000 season as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1999, he served as the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel/college scout. Heckert served as both a pro scout and as a college scout during his first nine seasons in South Florida.

During his ten seasons in Miami, the Dolphins compiled a 94-66 regular season record, captured 3 AFC East championships, and made the playoffs 7 times. During Heckert's tenure, the Dolphins never had a losing season as he worked under two of the most successful head coaches in NFL history – Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson.

A native of Adrian, Michigan, Heckert joined the Dolphins after a spending two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He was a defensive back at Hillsdale and was a member of their National Championship squad in 1985.

Said Johnson, "I've worked with Tom for four years in Miami and the Eagles are going to be really happy with him as a member of their organization. He's smart, aggressive, and a good talent evaluator. He's a hard worker and has a strong opinion. As I told Coach Reid, if I were to come back as a head coach, Tom would be one of the first guys I'd try to hire."

Said Shula, "The Eagles have one of the top, young talent evaluators in the NFL. He has a lot of experience in the college and pro scouting areas."

Heckert and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Griffin (6), and a daughter, Madison (4). Heckert's father, Tom, has 19 years of experience in the NFL player personnel ranks, including the last 12 seasons with Miami.

Prior to holding that post, Cohen spent seven seasons with the Washington Redskins. During that time, he worked his way up from intern, to training camp director, to scouting administrator, to college scout. He also evaluated players at the pro level.

"I wanted a certain type of person in that role," said head coach/executive vice president of football operations Andy Reid of Cohen. "Scott is a grinder. He has learned the details of the job from the bottom up. He's worked hard to get himself into this position."

Born in Philadelphia, Cohen was raised in Cherry Hill, NJ, and attended Cherry Hill West High. He was a four-year starter at Dickinson College where he was a wide receiver in football and a pitcher in baseball. At 28, Ross is the youngest director of college scouting in the National Football League.

Added Modrak, "I never really put a tag on young or old. He just happens to be excellent at what he does. There's no seniority plan in this business. You're either good at it and can step up and do the job, or not. I strongly believe that he'll do an excellent job for the Philadelphia Eagles as the director of college scouting."

1998-99: Signed with Philadelphia as a free agent on 9/9/98, but was deactivated for four games before announcing his retirement to pursue an acting career ... spent the entire 1999 season on the Reserved-Retired list.

KOY DETMER

The son of a renowned Texas high school football coach, Detmer's unique personality and love of the game have brought something special to the entire Eagles organization and its fans ...

wrote Philadelphia Inquirer beat writer Phil Sheridan in 1999, "In a league in which quarterbacks are identified and overpaid based on quantifiable data like height, weight, and velocity of passes, Koy Detmer stands out like the skinny, unshaven Texas firebrand he is." ... originally a 7th round draft choice of the Eagles in 1997, he joined Ty (an Eagle from 1996-97 and a current member of the Cleveland Browns) in becoming the first pair of brothers to each start an NFL game (Terry and Craig Bradshaw were the only other brother quarterback tandem in NFL history, but Craig never started a game) ... signed a three-year contract extension on 8/28/00 that will keep him in an Eagles uniform through 2002 ... one of the most important cogs in the special teams unit, Detmer is the primary holder on all FGs and PATs.

2000: Though he did not appear on offense much of the season behind MVP candidate Donovan McNabb, Detmer was K David Akers' trusty holder on FG and PAT attempts ... appeared at QB in the last two series of the Eagles season opening win at Dal. (9/3) ... executed a perfect behind-the-back, no-look lateral to Akers who galloped 15 yards for a 1st down on a fake FG at Arz. (10/15) ... came in for one play vs. Chi. and lined up under center as Donovan McNabb split out at wide receiver (Detmer ended up scrambling for 8 yards).

1999: After battling with Bobby Hoying (traded to Oakland on 8/24) throughout training camp, assumed the #3 QB role to begin the season ... was troubled with an injured lower back early on and was the 3rdQB/deact. for each game until injuries to McNabb (knee) and Doug Pederson (rib) vaulted him into his only starting role vs. NE (12/19) ... in that game - which was his only playing time of the year - he fired 3 TD passes, including a 50 ydr. to Torrance Small, in the 24-9 win.

CHAD LEWIS

Chad Lewis traveled a long road to his current destination as the Eagles starting tight end let alone the starting tight end for the NFC Pro Bowl team ... born in Fort Dix, NJ, Lewis attended Orem (UT) HS and then served a two-year LDS mission in Taichung, Taiwan before enrolling at Brigham Young. Lewis made the football squad as a walk-on and ended up starting 22 games, catching 111 passes in his career ... undrafted, Lewis signed a rookie free agent contract with the Eagles in 1997 and caught 4 TDs in his rookie campaign ... with two trips to the waiver wire (Philadelphia and St. Louis both released him) in just over a year, Lewis didn't feel discouraged and refused to give up ... he came back to Philadelphia with his confidence level high and ready to play ... in his 4th NFL season, Lewis led the team and all NFC tight ends with 69 catches for 735 yards, most by an Eagles TE since Keith Jackson registered 81 in 1988 ... "He has become a more complete tight end," said former 49ers QB Steve Young, a fellow BYU alum. "It's no coincidence that as he has developed, the Eagles have become a playoff-caliber team." ... ESPN analyst Joe Thiesmann said, "Chad Lewis could very well have some of the best hands in the National Football League" ... was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on 12/23/00.

2000: Capped an outstanding season with his first Pro Bowl appearance as a starter on the NFC squad ... had a team-leading 69 catches for 735 yds. and 3 TDs ... his receiving totals were the best by a tight end in an Eagles uniform since Keith Jackson (81-869-6TDs) in 1988 ... in fact, was the first Eagles' TE to exceed the 50 catch plateau since Jackson's 63 in '89 ... was the Eagles leading receiver in eight games and paced the club in receiving yards in 7 contests ... vs. Dal. (11/5), grabbed 3 passes in OT to set up a game-winning FG in a 16-13 victory ... at Cle. (12/10), his career-long 52-yard catch on the opening drive set up the Eagles first score and his first career 100-yard receiving day.

CECIL MARTIN

A key component of the West Coast offense is a punishing blocking fullback who can also catch the ball out of the backfield ... Martin, the role to a tee ... a tireless worker who spends many, many hours at the NovaCare Complex to improve his game, Martin was thrust into the starting role as a rookie when former Eagle Kevin Turner missed 8 games with neck injuries and has performed admirably since ... through his first two seasons has played in 28 games (14 starts) and caught 42 passes while paving the way for star backfield mates QB Donovan McNabb and RB Duce Staley ... Martin's off-the-field accolades are impressive as well, as he was named by his teammates as the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient and the Eagles Unsung Hero Award in 2000 ... said Executive Director of Eagles Youth Partnership Sarah Martinez-Helfman, "Cecil brings joy to everything he touches. While his approach is disciplined, his warmth and positive energy is infectious. He seizes every opportunity to give on and off the field. This is a guy who steps in my office regularly to ask, 'What else can I do?'"

2000: Started 9 regular season games and both postseason contests ... was 13-77 rushing and 31-219 receiving ... his blocking at Dal. (9/3) helped the Eagles to their first 300-yard rushing day since 11/4/90 (304 vs. NE) ... had a career-high and game-high 6 catches for 40 yards vs. Dal. (11/5) ... made two catches, a 9 yarder on 4th-and-1 and a career-long 26 yarder in OT win at Pit. (11/12) ... vs. Cin. (12/24), a career-long 23-yard punishing run helped Martin to his best output as a pro (28 yards).

1999: Was slated to spend his rookie season learning the nuances of the Eagles offense under the direction of veteran FB Kevin Turner ... however, with Turner missing 8 games due to neck injuries, Martin was thrust into the lineup as the club's #1 fullback for those 8 contests (5 starts) ... made his first NFL start at NYG (10/3).

COLLEGE: Provided the lead blocking that enabled Wisconsin tailbacks to rush for over 1,000 yards in each of his four seasons (NCAA all-time leading rusher Ron Dayne from 1996-98 and Carl McCullough in 1995) ... was comfort throughout his five-year NFL career ... selected by Philadelphia in the 1st round of the '96 draft (the 25th overall selection), Mayberry spent the '97 campaign as the club's starting LT, '98 as the #1 LG, '99 as a RT and RG, and 2000 again at RG ... by starting every regular season and postseason contest at right guard in 2000, Mayberry finally appears to have found a home ... has now started 48 of the 63 games he has appeared in (17 at LT, 10 at LG, 4 at RT, and 17 at RG) ... was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on 12/23/00.

2000: Started every game at right guard and was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination ... as such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs (Indianapolis, New Orleans and NY Jets) to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16 game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat ... at Dal. (9/3), helped the Eagles to their first 300-yard rushing day in nearly a decade ... at NO (9/24), missed several plays after suffering a sprained toe.

1999: Entered training camp as the club's starting right tackle, but when rookie 4th round pick John Welbourn took over at right tackle late in the preseason, Mayberry shifted to right guard ... however, when Welbourn went down with a season-ending knee injury on opening day, Mayberry moved back to right tackle ... went down himself with a hamstring injury in game 3 at Buf., and was deactivated for games 4-5 and dressed but DNP in game 6 ... returned to action in game 7 at Mia. and rotated with Lonnie Palelei at RT in games 7-10, 12-14 and 16 ... replaced an injured Palelei (knee) in game 10 vs. Wash and started game 11 vs. Ind at RT ... also started at RT in game 15

DONOVAN McNABB

Although the stock market has been tumultuous in recent years, one stock certainly soared throughout the past two years. And that's the stock of Eagles QB Donovan McNabb ... it became clearer and clearer why the Eagles used the #2 pick in the 1999 draft to select McNabb ... a rookie season that didn't see a lot of starting time for McNabb was used rather as a grooming process ... as a result, in 2000, a more composed, and more importantly, a more mature McNabb came to the forefront and not only became the leader of the Eagles offense, but a legitimate NFL Most Valuable Player candidate as well as being named the first alternate on the NFC Pro Bowl squad behind Min's Daunte Culpepper, StL's Kurt Warner, and SF's Jeff Garcia ... although McNabb did not garner the Associated Press MVP honors, he finished 2nd in the voting (24-11) to StL RB Marshall Faulk ... preparation is the key to McNabb's success, first and foremost, says head coach Andy Reid, "I think he's confident, number one. I think that he prepares and I think that the way you prepare for a game is very important. That can help you out once you get to Sunday, where you can just play, you're not over thinking and if you are a top-notch athlete, it allows you to execute and kind of showcase your athletic abilities." ... wrote The Sporting News writer Paul Attner, "In a league wondering where its next stars will emerge, Donovan McNabb is a refreshing revelation, a charismatic charmer. In a league wondering how to generate a bit more sizzle and snap, he is all shake and hip, a bundle of moves and quick feet, a weekly road map to excitement."

2000: In his first full season as a NFL starting quarterback, was runner up to Marshall Faulk in the Associated Press MVP voting and was selected as a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad (behind the Vikings Duante Culpepper, 49ers Jeff Garcia, and Rams Kurt Warner) ... when Warner was unable to participate due to injury, McNabb stepped into the Pro Bowl lineup and led the NFC squad on a touchdown scoring drive in his first series ... was also named NFL player of the year by CBS Radio and the Terry (Bradshaw) Awards on Fox Sports ... was voted by his teammates as the

Tabbed as a big play defensive tackle out of Florida State, the Eagles used the sixth overall pick in the 2000 draft to acquire the burly sack plug and put a charge into their defensive line ... the evidence came on his very first play from scrimmage as a pro when he exploded into the backfield and tripped up Cowboys QB Troy Aikman to register a sack in the season opening win at Dal. ## DUCE STALEY

A tattoo on his right forearm is inscribed with the Chinese symbols meaning "never satisfied" ... it's that attitude plus a great deal of determination and toughness that has fueled Duce Staley in becoming one of the NFL's top running backs during his four-year NFL career ... however, Staley has applied those same traits in a different manner in 2000-01 as he battles back from a devastating foot injury suffered a year ago ... after posting back-to-back 1,000-yd. rushing seasons from 1998-99, Staley was on his way to another spectacular season in 2000 before suffering a Lis Franc sprain in the 4th quarter in a week 5 match-up with Atlanta ... according to Eagles athletic trainer Rick Burkholder, the derivation of the unique name of the injury goes way back in history to the days of Napoleon, whose surgeon was named Lis Franc. The injury is common in horseback riding accidents when a rider's foot is caught in the stirrup after being thrown from a horse ... after undergoing surgery (pins were placed in his foot without an incision) on 10/10/00 by Dr. Evan Ekman in South Carolina, Staley underwent a grueling rehabilitation period under the watchful care of Burkholder and returned to the practice field for a mini-camp that began on May 17, 2001 ... after participating in two mini-camps this past offseason, Staley is eager to get back to the form that placed him among the NFL's elite at the running back position ... since being a third round pick of the Eagles in 1997, Staley's stock has risen each and every year ... in fact, after carving a niche for himself as the Birds' primary kick returner during his rookie season in 1997, Staley ended the '99 campaign as the 1st alternate on the NFC Pro Bowl squad and as a first-time member of Fox Sports analyst John Madden's esteemed All-Madden Team ... after RB Ricky Watters left for Seattle via free agency in 1998 and Charlie Garner was slowed with ankle injuries in the early part of the '98 season, Staley took on the role of a workhorse back and flourished ... with 1,065 rushing yards in 1998 and 1,273 more in '99, Staley became the 3rd Eagles running back to ever register back-to-back 1,000 rushing yard seasons. Wilbert Montgomery (1978-79) and Watters (1995-97) were the others ... a valuable receiver out of the backfield as well, Duce was voted by his teammates as the team's offensive MVP in 1998 and '99 ... signed a six-year deal on 5/21/99 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2004.

2000: Had a year of great promise end prematurely with a Lis Franc sprain (foot) in week 5... opened the season at Dal. (9/3) in explosive fashion earning NFC offensive player of the week and Miller Lite NFL player of the week honors after rushing for 201 yards ... marked only the second time in team history and the first time in over 50 years that an Eagle rushed for over 200 yards (Steve Van Buren collected 205 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 11/27/49). Was taken out for the final 12 minutes in a 41-14 route of the Cowboys. His 262 total yards from scrimmage eclipsed his previous high by more than 100 yards (151 at Carolina on 11/7/99). Was able to reach these numbers due to several big plays (60- and 34-yard runs and 26 and 20-yard receptions) ... accounted for 71.3% of the Eagles offense (122 of 171 yards) at GB ... vs. Atl. (10/1) left the game in the 4th quarter after suffering that foot injury ... was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/10 after undergoing surgery on his foot ... at the time of his injury was among the NFC/NFL leaders in most offensive categories - total yards from scrimmage (6/8); rushing (7/10); receptions among RBs (2/2).

1999: Ranked 4th in the NFC/7th in the NFL in rushing (325-1273-4TDs) and 2nd on the Eagles in receiving (41-294-2TD) ... his five 100-yd. rushing games tied him for 6th in the NFL, while his 1,509 total yards from scrimmage rank him 4th in the NFC/10th in the NFL ... accounted for an NFL-best 40.9% of his team's total offense ... besides earning offensive MVP honors in a vote by Eagles teammates for the 2nd straight year, Staley was selected as the first alternate for the NFC Pro Bowl squad behind Marshall Faulk (starter), Stephen Davis, and Emmitt Smith ... opened the season with a 21-111-1TD rush./3-19-1TD rec. performance vs. Arz ... pounded out 110 yards in win vs. Dal, including 100 yds. on 16 carries in the 2nd half ... a week later at Chi., went 23-101 rush./4-37 rec. in another win. It was the first time in his career he recorded 100-yard rushing games in back-to-back weeks ... registered 26-97-1TD rush./3-32 rec.

#'s vs. NYG ... his 17-140-1TD rushing performance at Car. (11/7) was one yard shy of a career high. With 2-11 rec. #'s, tied a career high with 151 total yards of offense ... a week later vs. Wash., ran 28 times for 122 yds. and 1 TD in a win ... surpassed the 1,000-yd. rushing mark at Arz. ... battled flu-like symptoms to record 29-93 rushing #'s in win vs. NE ... caught a 3-yd. TD pass from Donovan McNabb in victory over StL.

1998: Following the winter departure of Ricky Watters to Seattle via free agency and with Charlie Garner plagued by injuries early on, Staley was thrust into the spotlight and quickly blossomed ... after taking on the role of a featured back, Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) ... that output was made all the more impressive by the fact that he played the majority of the year with a painful hernia ... by season's end, he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing mark since Wilbert Montgomery (1981) and the first Eagle to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Herschel Walker (1993) ... voted by his teammates as the club's offensive MVP, he finished the year ranked 5th in NFC/11th in NFL in total yds. from scrimmage and 6th in the NFC in rushing behind Jamal Anderson (Atl.), Garrison Hearst (SF), Barry Sanders (Det.), Emmitt Smith (Dal.), and Robert Smith (Min.) ... amassed 100-or-more total yards of offense in each of the last six contests and, although he had 315 touches (258 carries and 57 receipts.), Staley fumbled only twice, recovering both bobbles himself ... originally entered training camp as the #2 RB, but an ankle injury to Garner gave Staley his first NFL start in the season opener vs. Sea. (went 20-95 rush./1-6 rec.) ... then went 18-43-1TD rush./9-73 rec. a week later at Atl. The TD (a 1-yd. dive) was his first as a pro and his 9 catches were the most by an Eagle RB since Watters posted 11 vs. Wash. in 1995 ... went on to collect a career-high 3 TDs (2 rush./1 rec.) vs. KC on 9/27 ... notched career highs in rushing atts. and yards vs. Arz. (12/13), going 30-141, including a 30-yd. TD run ... capped the year with the longest run of his career, a 64-yd. TD scamper vs. NYG (12/27) that put him over the 1,000-yd. mark.

1997: The Eagles' third round draft pick (the 71st selection overall), Staley played in all 16 games as a rookie and made his mark as a kickoff returner, ranking 5th in the NFC with a 24.2-yard KOR average ... in addition, his 1,139 KOR yards marked the second highest single-season total in club history ... finished with four returns of 40-or-more yards, including a season-best 57-ydr. at Wash. ... saw limited action on offense in six games, but was impressive at Wash., going 6-30 rushing and 2-22 receiving ... ranked third on the squad with 15 special teams tackles.

COLLEGE: One of the NCAA's best all-around running backs in 1996, Staley ranked 13th in the country with 1,116 rushing yards en route to earning first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors ... finished his two-year career ranked 13th on South Carolina's all-time rushing list with 1,852 yards and 17 TDs on 345 carries ... an extremely versatile back, he also hauled in 59 receptions for 489 yards and 2 TDs and returned 26 kickoffs for 566 yds. ... transferred to South Carolina from Itawamba (MS) JC.

PERSONAL: Single ... a native of Columbia, SC, where he was an all-state selection at Airport HS, Staley now resides in both Philadelphia and West Columbia ... in 1999, was named chairman for the Special Olympics Philadelphia's sponsor-an-athlete annual campaign. The program supports over 4,000 children and adults training and competing in over 20 Olympic-style sports ... on 12/23/99, donated $25,000 to South Carolina Governor Jim Hodges' First Steps early childhood education program. His contribution is a means to help improve education in the state ... since 1999, runs the Duce Staley Football Camp at West Chester (PA) University as he has since 1999 ... his achievements on and off the field earned him a special award at Philadelphia's 3rd annual Black History Month Celebration in 2000 ... when asked about the origin of his first name, Staley said jokingly, "I was the second born. I guess my mom ran out of names." ... majored in sociology ... lists the late Walter Payton as his boyhood hero. Said Duce, "I liked his toughness - both mental and physical. ## BOBBY TAYLOR

A staple at the RCB position for the Eagles over the past six seasons, Taylor has teamed with Pro Bowl corner Troy Vincent to create one of the most formidable tandems in the National Football League

... at 6-3, 216, Taylor uses his size, strength, and intelligence to match up with some of the league's premier wide receivers on a week-to-week basis ... an NFL all-rookie team selection in '95 and the longest tenured member of the Eagles roster, Taylor has now played in 80 games (72 starts) and has totaled 12 INTs and 85 knockdowns.

2000: Started 15 games and both postseason matchups and recorded 3 INTs along with 54 tackles and 16 pass break ups ... the Eagles were victorious in all three games that he registered an INT (at Arz., at Pit., and at Cle.) ... picked off Kordell Stewart and raced a career-long 38 yards to set up the game's first score at Pit. ... intercepted former Eagle Doug Pederson at the PE 3 with 50 seconds remaining to seal 35-24 playoff-clinching win at Cle.

1999: Started 14 games and posted a career-high 4 INTs, led the team in fumble recoveries (3), and tied for the team lead with 19 pass break-ups ... was directly responsible for 7 of the Eagles' league-best 46 take-aways ... had 1 INT against each of the four NFC East foes ... his 18-yd. INT return off of Kent Graham for his first career TD at NYG (10/31) was his first theft since 12/14/96 at NYJ ... posted an INT off Troy Aikman late in the 4th qtr. vs. Dal. (10/10) to seal a 13-10 win ... in consecutive games, INT'd a Brad Johnson pass at Wash. and a Jake Plummer pass at Arz. ... vs. NE (12/19), recovered a fumble by RB Terry Allen in the red zone before breaking his jaw, an injury that required surgery and saw him land on the Injured Reserve list for the season finale ... suffered an ankle injury during the preseason that limited his action in the first two regular season games.

1998: His return from a '97 knee injury was slowed in the third preseason game at Balt. when he suffered a fractured scapula after being tackled by Ravens T Jonathan Ogden while returning an interception ... subsequently missed the first five regular season games before returning to the lineup vs. Wash. (his first regular season action in 364 days) ... posted a team-best and career-high 10 tckls. at Wash. (11/15) ... did not start at Dal. due to a stomach virus.

1997: After being injury free in his first two campaigns and with stardom within his reach, Taylor's third season was cut to just six games ... saw limited preseason action due to a groin injury that rendered him unable to start the opener ... then, when finally at full strength, suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 1st qtr. of game 6 at Jax. (10/12) that required surgery by Dr. James Andrews ... suffered torn lateral meniscus cartilage and a partial tear of the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee while breaking up a pass from Mark Brunell to WR Jimmy Smith and was placed on Injured Reserve on 10/17 ... 1995: The first of the Eagles' two 2nd round picks in '95, Taylor was selected with a choice obtained from Kansas City in a draft day deal that sent WR Victor Bailey and a 4th round pick to the Chiefs in exchange for the 50th selection overall and a later pick ... began the '95 campaign in a learning mode but prior to game 5 at NO was inserted into the starting lineup ahead of Derrick Frazier ... he then quickly excelled against some of the league's best, and biggest, receivers ... subsequently earned a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie ... garnered national recognition by twice earning NFC defensive player of the week honors in December - first holding Cowboys' all-pro Michael Irvin to just 3 catches in a win over Dallas (when he also broke up two Troy Aikman-to-Irvin bombs on the 'Boys final series) and then after putting the clamps on Lions' all-pro Herman Moore in a playoff win.

In teaming up with the hospital, Bobby and fellow CB Troy Vincent have founded "Athletes Care for Kids" (ACK) to develop programs to encourage athletes to mentor children. ## TRA THOMAS

Tra Thomas (6-7, 349 lbs.) has begun to escape from obscurity ... the offensive tackle position is not one of glitz and glamour, and opening win at Dal. (9/3) and the Eagles, as a team, ran for over 300 yards ... played perhaps his finest game of the season against future Hall of Famer Bruce Smith at Wash. (11/26), shutting him down for most of the game.

72 when you are noticed, more times than not, that's a bad sign ... the exception to this rule comes when you rise to another level, out of obscurity and your skills becomes irrefutable ... lining up week after week against some of the premier defensive ends in the league, Thomas has proved to be more than a worthy adversary ... in only his third year, Thomas was selected as a 1st alternate on the NFC Pro Bowl team at one of the toughest positions in the league ... Tra has become a mainstay at left tackle in Philadelphia as the Eagles have used 20 starting LTs over the last 25 years, and only one, Stan Walters, who held the position from 1975-1983, has more starts than Thomas ... by inking a six-year contract extension on 10/26/00, it appears that Thomas will leave a lasting impression on the city of Philadelphia ... "He's as good as any tackle in the National Football League," said head coach Andy Reid ... Pro Bowl DE Hugh Douglas credits Thomas for much of his own success. "He's one of the reasons why I'm having so much success. He's my sparring partner. To be a great fighter, you have to have a great sparring partner. He's the best."

2000: Started all 18 games at LT, protecting QB Donovan McNabb's "blindsides," en route to being named a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad ... was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination ... as such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs (Indianapolis, New Orleans and NY Jets) to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16 game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat ... helped open up holes during one of the greatest rushing performances in club history as RB Duce Staley gained 201 yds. in the season

If you look real hard on your Rand McNally Road Atlas, Hooks (population 3,500) is a small town nestled in the northeast section of Texas. It is approximately 160 miles east of Dallas and sits near the Texas and Arkansas border. It's also the hometown for one of the young, rising stars in the National Football League in Jeremiah Trotter ... the Eagles first of two 3rd round selections in the 1998 draft, Trotter spent a majority of his rookie season deactivated and when he was active saw time only on special teams and as a reserve linebacker ... three seasons later his strong work ethic and leadership ability earned Trotter a trip to Hawaii as the starting MLB for the NFC squad ... in his first two seasons as a starter, led the team with 202 tackles (1999) and 171 tackles (2000) while recording 26 double-digit tackle performances ... said head coach Andy Reid of Trotter, "He became the pulse of that defense. He's a very emotional player. He's not afraid to be vocal with the players and he's very demanding of himself. He sets a tempo for that side of the football."

• VINTAGE VINCENT •

- In 2000, earned his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter, while continuing to climb the Eagles all-time charts in interceptions (11th-20) and interception yards (7th-312).
- In 1999, tied for 1st in the NFL with a career-high 7 INTs while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career ... became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since Bill Bradley (1972).
- Entered the NFL record books on 11/3/96 when he took a lateral from LB James Willis (who had INT'd a Troy Aikman pass at Dal.) and raced the final 90 yards of a record 104-yd. TD return.
- Scored another TD after taking a lateral from Dolphin teammate Gene Atkins (who had INT'd a Chiefs' pass) and covered the final 58 yards of a 76-yd. TD return in 1994.
- When he left the Dolphins to join the Eagles in 1996, it was a homecoming of sorts for Vincent who was born and raised in Trenton, NJ.
- In 2000, was selected as one of The Sporting News 100 "100 Good Guys in Sports" for his civic responsibility and character.
- Established the Troy Vincent Foundation to provide education and other services to young adults who have been involved with the legal system ... the foundation benefits numerous charitable endeavors throughout the Philadelphia and Trenton area including the newly founded Troy Vincent Women's Athletics, an organization with the goal of enhancing women's athletics at the high school level.

- For more off-the-field information on Vincent, log on to www.troyvincent.com.

1998: Despite a slow start to the season due to a quad injury suffered in the preseason, went on to share the team lead in INTs (2) with Brian Dawkins and rank 2nd on the club in passes knocked down with 13 ... aggravated the quad injury in the season opener vs. Sea. and was sidelined for the next two contests, breaking a streak of 60 consecutive starts ... also missed game 10 at Wash. due to a concussion suffered a week earlier vs. Det., when he collided with SS Michael Zordich ... notched INTs vs. GB's Brett Favre and Arz.'s Jake Plummer ... also posted the first sack of his career (vs. Dal.'s Troy Aikman on Monday Night Football, 11/2).

1997: Entered the season paired with RCB Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of the top cornerback tandems in the league ... but when Taylor's season ended with a knee injury in game 6, Vincent stepped up his play, matching up well against the opponents' top receiver week after week ... started all 16 games at LCB and finished the season leading the Eagles in passes knocked down (23) and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in INTs (3 -- at Min., vs. Pit. and at Wash.) ... starred in the Birds' 13-12 win over Dallas (10/26), limiting WR Michael Irvin to just three receptions, all in the 1st half ... in the first Dal. game (9/15), broke up consecutive deep passes to Anthony Miller before being sidelined by a strained left shoulder with :08 remaining in the 2nd qtr. ... shared the punt return chores with Freddie Solomon for games 5-6.

1996: A highly sought after free agent "transition" player, Vincent officially became an Eagle on 3/3/96 and, along with RCB Bobby Taylor, provided the Birds with one of the NFL's top cornerback duos ... started all 16 games at the LCB spot ... after missing the first two preseason games with a strained groin, returned to the lineup in a season-opening win at Wash. ... but it was in the final seconds of a 31-21, game 9 win at Dal. that Vincent etched his name into the NFL record books. With Dallas trailing by 3 and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' 3, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and ret'd it 14 yds. Willis then lateralled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yds. for a game-clinching score. As such, the combined efforts of Vincent and Willis resulted in the longest INT return for a TD in NFL history (topping the 103-yd. effort by San Diego's Vencie Glenn vs. Den. on 11/29/87) ... other big plays by Vincent included INTs off Atl.'s Jeff George (9/22), Wash.'s Gus Frerotte (11/17), and the Giants' Dave Brown (12/1) ... helped seal a win vs. Car. when he forced two fumbles deep in Eagles' territory - one by QB Kerry Collins at the Eagles' 4 and one by Anthony Johnson that set up a FG.

1994: Rebounded from a 1993 knee injury to play in 13 games, including 12 starts at LCB ... finished with 62 tackles and team-high totals of 5 INTs and 20 KDs ... those 5 thefts tied him for sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL ... was the Dolphin winner of the 1994 Ed Block Courage Award, an honor given annually to one player on each NFL team for his courage, strength, and leadership ... in season opener vs. NE, registered an INT off Drew Bledsoe but was inactive for games 2-4 because of a sore knee ... returned to his starting role in week 6 at Buf. ... posted 2nd INT of season off Bledsoe vs. NE ... Vincent's 4th qtr. interception at NYJ set up a Dolphin TD in a come-from-behind win over the Jets ... registered an INT and his first career TD vs. the Chiefs. His score came following an interception by teammate Gene Atkins, who returned the ball 18 yards before later-alling to Vincent, who then raced the final 58 yards ... started both postseason contests.

1993: Despite having his season cut short when he suffered a knee injury in game 13, Vincent finished the year with 68 tackles, 2 INTs, a fumble recovery, and 11 passes defended en route to being voted by the South Florida media as the Dolphins' outstanding defensive back ... his interceptions came in the season opener at Ind. (off Jack Trudeau) and in game 4 vs. Wash. ... in fact, the INT vs. Wash.'s Rich Gannon ended the Redskins' final drive and preserved a 17-10 victory ... however, Vincent tore ligaments and cartilage in his right knee on a reverse of a punt return vs. Pit. and underwent reconstructive surgery on 12/23.

1992: After Miami made him the 7th overall pick in the '92 draft, Vincent went on to start the final 14 regular season games and both playoff contests at LCB ... finished his rookie campaign with 77 tackles, 2 INTs, and a team-high 13 knockdowns ... for his efforts, Vincent earned NFL all-rookie honors from Football News, Pro Football Weekly, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... opened the season on inactive list (hamstring) ... posted a career-high 10 tackles at Buf., before registering his first career INT off of Jeff George at Ind. ... also recorded a theft off Cody Carlson vs. Hou. ... truly made his mark in the postseason as he garnered AFC defensive player of the week honors following a 5-tackle, 2-INT performance vs. SD ... both of his INTs in that game (off Stan Humphries) led to TDs in the Dolphins' 31-0 win ... became the first rookie in Dolphin history to intercept a pass in a playoff game.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter at Wisconsin, Vincent was one of the most honored defensive backs as a senior, when he garnered first team All-America honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Football News and The Sporting News, while also earning co-defensive player-of-the-year accolades from the Big Ten ... was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back ... a dangerous return man for the Badgers as well, he averaged 11.4 yards and scored 3 TDs on punt returns and had a 22.0-yard kickoff return average during his collegiate career.

NFL NEWS & NOTES FROM 2000

- All six divisions had new champions for only the third time since 1970 (1992, 1998).
- Starting with Duce Staley's 201-yd. performance on opening day at Dallas, there were a NFL-record 11 200-yd. rushing games in 2000.
- All local television blackouts were lifted on a weekend a record three times. This feat had been accomplished only once before in the 27-year history of the NFL blackout policy until 2000.

1

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 41, DALLAS 14
TEXAS STADIUM • 62,872

The Eagles opened the season in explosive fashion with a 41-14 trouncing of NFC East rival Dallas Cowboys at a sultry Texas Stadium, where the game-time temperature was 109 degrees and nearly 150 degrees on the turf. The heat did not bother RB Duce Staley, who rushed for 201 yards and a TD on 26 carries, marking only the 2nd time in team history, and the first time in over 50 years, that an Eagle rushed for over 200 yards (Steve Van Buren rushed for 205 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 11/27/49) ... With the Cowboys winning the coin toss and electing to receive, the fireworks began on the opening kickoff when head coach Andy Reid called for a surprise onside kick that Eagles WR Dameane Douglas recovered. The offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, marched 58 yards on 8 plays culminating in a 1-yard TD pass to TE Jeff Thomason. Armed with a 7-0 lead, the defense sacked QB Troy Aikman 3 times on their first drive, including one by first round draft pick DT Corey Simon on his very first play from scrimmage. Later in the quarter, the Eagles benefitted from a pass interference call that put the ball on the DC1. Staley then plunged one yard for the score. At the beginning of the 2nd qtr. the Eagles defense struck again as LB Jeremiah Trotter intercepted Aikman and returned it 27 yards for his first career TD to give the Eagles a 21-0 lead. David Akers connected on a 33-yard FG to push the Eagles lead to 24-0. Two FGs by Cowboys K Tim Seder made the halftime score 24-6. The Eagles offense opened the 2nd half with a 14 play-61 yd. drive that chewed 8:30 off the clock and resulted in a 37-yd. FG by Akers. After a 3-and-out by the Cowboys, the Eagles then traveled 72 yards in 9 plays as McNabb forged his way into the end zone from 3 yards out to increase their lead to 34-6. With the game well in hand and Staley 1 yard shy of his career high (141), Reid decided to let Staley run. And run he did, sprinting 60 yards to the DC6, where RB Brian Mitchell powered into the end zone to cap the Eagles scoring.

NOTES: The Eagles 306 total rushing yards were their most since 12/2/51, when they rumbled for 307 yds. vs. the Redskins ... Since 1970, the Eagles eclipsed the 300-yard mark just one other time (304 yards vs. NE on 11/4/90 behind two 100-yard games from QB Randall Cunningham, 8-124 and RB Heath Sherman, 24-113) ... Staley, who earned Miller Lite Player of the Week and NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, led the team with 4 catches for 61 yards. His 262 total yards from scrimmage shattered his previous career high (151 at Car. on 11/7/99) ... Aikman, who had been sacked 49 times and INT'd 18 times in 20 previous career regular season games against the Eagles, sustained 4 sacks, 1 INT returned for a TD (Trotter), and 6 QB hits before leaving the game in the 2nd qtr. with a concussion. He was replaced by Cunningham ... Cowboys WR Joey Galloway suffered a season-ending knee injury ... The Eagles also won 41-14 on the road on opening day in 1988 at Tampa Bay.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2000
NY GIANTS 33, PHILADELPHIA 18
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,530

The New York Giants used a methodical offense of both the run and the pass to hand the Eagles their first loss of the 2000 season, 33-18. Mixing a grinding ground game from Tiki Barber and Ron Dayne with QB Kerry Collins' pinpoint pass efficiency, the Giants offense marched to two 10-play drives, resulting in two FGs in the first half. The Giants efficiency on offense coupled with the Eagles inability to sustain a drive left Philadelphia's defense on the field for over 22 minutes in the first half of play ... After three straight three-and-outs for the Eagles, QB Donovan McNabb began to showcase his multi-talented abilities in the 2nd quarter. Midway thru the 2nd stanza, McNabb juke and jived out of the backfield to burst upfield for a 17-yd. run. On the very next play, McNabb went to the air with a pass over the middle to TE Chad Lewis, who made a highlight-reel, one-handed catch to bring the ball to the Giants 4-yard line. There the offense stalled and David Akers came on to kick a 33-yd. FG to cut the Giants lead in half at 6-3. Then over the span of 4:43 left in the first half, the Giants used two quick TDs (a 25-yd. TD catch by WR Amani Toomer and a 31-yd. TD scamper by Barber) to open up a 20-3 half-time lead. With their backs against the wall, the Eagles offense, led by McNabb's 6-for-6 passing, awoke to start the second half and promptly marched 49 yards in 10 plays to the Giants 11-yd. line. Once again, they stalled as Akers came on to boot a 29-yd. FG to bring the score to 20-6. But the Giants came back down the field to open a three-touchdown lead as Collins connected with WR Ike Hilliard on a 30-yd. scoring play. McNabb fought back to drive his troops 68 yds. in just 6 plays and finished it off with a spectacular 15-yd. TD jaunt. The ensuing PAT by Akers was blocked and the score remained 27-12. As was the case all afternoon, every time the Eagles attempted to get back in the game, the Giants had an answer. Collins again led the Giants on two drives that not only produced two field goals to open the lead to 33-12, but chewed up precious time. McNabb closed out the scoring by firing a 7-yd. TD strike to Lewis to cap an 8-play, 64-yd. drive.

NOTES: With 106 return yards, RB/KR Brian Mitchell became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach the 17,000-yard mark in combined net yards. Only Walter Payton, Jerry Rice, Barry Sanders, Herschel Walker and Marcus Allen are ahead of Mitchell ... C Bubba Miller recorded the second reception of his career as he came down with a deflected pass and rumbled 9 yards. His first, an 11-yd. catch, also came against the Giants in 1998 (12/27) ... QB Donovan McNabb rushed for his second TD in as many games. The last time an Eagles QB rushed for a TD in consecutive games was Randall Cunningham (12/6/92 vs. Minnesota and 12/13/92 at Seattle).

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2000

GREEN BAY 6, PHILADELPHIA 3

LAMBEAU FIELD • 59,869

The Eagles and Packers fought to the bitter end in a hard-hitting, defensive struggle as Packers K Ryan Longwell kicked the winning field goal with 0:03 remaining to hand the Eagles a 6-3 defeat at a sun-splashed Lambeau Field. The game featured an Eagles defense that pressured and pounded three-time league MVP Brett Favre as they racked up five sacks and three INTs. However, missed opportunities due to untimely penalties kept the scoring between the opposing kickers ... After trading punts on both of their first possessions, the Eagles defense struck as LB Jeremiah Trotter picked off Favre and returned it to the GB7. But a defensive holding call by CB Troy Vincent negated the play and gave the Packers new life as they drove to mid-field. But as Favre went for a home run pass downfield, FS Brian Dawkins made a leaping INT to halt the drive at the PE10. Later in the 2nd stanza, Eagles QB Donovan McNabb finally sparked the offense on an 11-play, 41-yd. trip down the field ending with a 43-yd. FG by David Akers to break the scoreless deadlock. In the closing moments of the half, Packers S Darren Sharper intercepted a McNabb pass and returned it to the GB44. Aided by four straight Eagle penalties, the Packers moved the ball to the PE22 to set up a field goal, but Longwell pushed the 40-yd. FGA wide left as the half ended. As Green Bay was putting together a drive on their first possession of the 2nd half, the Eagles defense once again came up with a big play that looked to turn the tide of the game. Hugh Douglas, who registered 2.5 sacks on the day, sacked Favre and jarred the ball loose. The fumble was scooped up by Mike Caldwell and returned 46 yds. for a TD. However, an untimely illegal contact penalty by SS Damon Moore canceled out the result of the play and gave the ball back to the Packers. This time Favre drove to the PE19 where Longwell booted a 37-yd FG to knot the score at 3-3. As the 3rd quarter began to wind down, the Packers looked to have taken the lead as former Eagle Allen Rossum fielded a punt and sprinted 72 yds. for a TD. This time the penalty bug bit the Packers as Kevin Williams was whistled for an illegal block, which negated the play and kept the score 3-3. Early in the 4th stanza, Favre twice had drives halted by interceptions (Vincent and Moore). However with the Eagles not being able to move the ball into field goal range, Favre was given one too many chances to win the game. With five minutes remaining, Favre began the eventual game-winning drive. Mixing runs by RB Dorsey Levens and four straight completions by Favre, the Packers set the stage for Longwell's game-winning kick.

NOTES: Eagles RB/KR Brian Mitchell, in his 11th year of service, played his first game ever against Green Bay ... The last time the Eagles played in a game that did not feature a TD was a 12-6 defeat against Arizona (11/20/94) ... The Eagles entered the game with a 16-0-1 record in their last 17 games in which they held their opponent to 10 points or less.

4

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 21, NEW ORLEANS 7
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME • 64,900

The Eagles defense collected four turnovers and five sacks for the second straight week. Donovan McNabb fired two TD passes, and Brian Mitchell returned a punt 72 yds. for a TD as the Eagles forged to a 21-7 win down on the bayou over the Saints at the Superdome to even their record at 2-2 ... The game did not start out well for the Eagles as the Saints Toby Gowin's punt ricocheted off of CB Jason Bostic's back and the Saints recovered the ball on the PE20. Three plays later QB Jeff Blake scampered 10-yds. for the TD and a 7-0 lead midway through the 1st quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, Mitchell bolted 94 yds. for the apparent game-tying TD. However, a holding penalty nullified the score. After the two teams traded punts, the Eagles offense began a drive that would span 88 yds. in 10 plays as McNabb completed 6 of 7 passes, including a 16-yd. TD pass to TE Chad Lewis to knot the score at 7-7. On the Saints very next offensive play, DT Hollis Thomas stripped the ball from RB Ricky Williams that CB Troy Vincent recovered to set up the offense on the NO21. McNabb went for the quick strike, on the very next play, as he hit WR Charles Johnson in the back of the end zone to give the Eagles the 14-7 lead. The Eagles defense swarmed all over the field, punishing anyone who had the ball and protected the lead. SS Tim Hauck, filling in for the injured Brian Dawkins (appendectomy), administered a devastating hit on WR Joe Horn to break up a pass and keep the Saints out of the Eagles red zone. As the 1st half wound down, Vincent picked off Blake to halt a Saints drive and preserve the 14-7 lead. On their first possession of the 2nd half, the Saints used the power running of Williams to drive to the PE24. On the next play though, H.Thomas exploded into the Saints backfield to hit Williams and force another fumble. LB Carlos Emmons made the recovery to turn away the latest Saints attempt to tie the game. With just under five minutes to play in the 3rd quarter Mitchell capped off the scoring for the day and seemingly broke the Saints backs. He settled under Gowin's booming 52-yd. punt and exploded up the middle of the field for 72 yds. and a TD. The final quarter did not feature any scoring, but defensive coordinator Jim Johnson had his unit pin its ears back and come after Blake and the Saints offense. The result was three sacks, another Vincent INT and the preservation of a gutsy 21-7 win in a hostile arena.

NOTES: RB/KR Brian Mitchell's 72-yd. punt return for a TD was his 10th career TD return (kickoff or punt) ... he now trails only Eric Metcalf who holds the NFL record with 11 TD returns ... Troy Vincent's 2 INTs marked the fourth time in his career he has accomplished multiple thefts in one game.

PHILADELPHIA 38, ATLANTA 10
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,424

Brian Mitchell racked up 290 total net yds. and 2 TDs. Donovan McNabb spread the ball around to ten different receivers for 311 yds. and 2 TDs, and the defense threw up a roadblock at the Falcons as the Eagles rolled to a 38-10 win over Atlanta in front of an electric Veterans Stadium crowd and a national television audience (ESPN) ... The Eagles faithful immediately rose to a frenzied pitch on the opening kickoff as Mitchell galloped 47 yds. on the return to set up a 39-yd. FG by David Akers. The score would remain the same until McNabb and company embarked on a 15-play, 64-yd. drive culminating in a 38-yd. FG by Akers to give the Eagles a 6-0 halftime margin. As they had all night, the Eagles rock-steady defense turned away the Falcons offense drive after drive, with the Falcons managing only 51 total yds. in the 1st half. Holding a 6-0 lead in a defensive struggle and facing a 3rd and 10 from the PE30, McNabb broke things open when he hit a streaking Torrance Small down the middle of the field for a 70-yd. TD strike. McNabb then found Small in the back of the end zone, as he made a one-handed grab, for the 2-pt. conversion and a 14-0 lead early on in the 3rd quarter. The Falcons responded as Tim Dwight raced 70 yds. on a punt return for a TD to cut the lead in half, 14-7. The Eagles came back with a 19-yd. FG by Akers set up by a Dameane Douglas 41-yd. kickoff return to extend the lead to 17-7 with the 4th quarter left to play. On their next possession, the Eagles used a steady dose of McNabb's passing (6 of 7 for 61 yds.) and Mitchell's legs (55 total yds.), who was stepping in for the injured Duce Staley, to march 85 yds. in 9 plays, capped by a Charles Johnson diving TD reception to make it 24-7. After a Morten Anderson FG brought the score to 24-10, Mitchell fielded the ensuing kickoff and darted 89 yds. for the TD as the Eagles brought their lead to 31-10. With the game well in hand, the Eagles got the ball back on their own 15-yd. line as the two-minute warning approached, and all that was needed were a few plays to run out the clock. However, Mitchell took the hand off and sprinted up the left sideline 85-yds. for the TD to cap the scoring and put an end to a night's worth of fireworks.

NOTES: RB/KR Brian Mitchell tied Eric Metcalf with a NFL-record 11 kick returns (punt and kickoff) for TDs after his 4th qtr. 89-yd. KOR ... In his primetime debut, McNabb registered his first career 300-yd. passing game ... With McNabb (311 yds. passing), Mitchell (105 yds. rushing) and Torrance Small (122 yds. receiving), the Eagles had a 300-yd. passer, 100-yd. rusher and receiver in the same game for the first time since QB Randall Cunningham (365), RB Herschel Walker (111) and WR Fred Barnett (161) did so at Seattle (12/13/92) ... The Eagles offense piled up 502 total yards (it was the first time they reached that plateau since 11/30/97, when they had 507 vs. Cin.) ... DE Hugh Douglas recorded his first career INT (vs. Chris Chandler).

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2000
WASHINGTON 17, PHILADELPHIA 14
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,491

The Eagles and Redskins entered this classic NFC East battle with identical 3-2 records and a share of first place in the division. Michael Husted, though, kicked the game-winning 24-yd. FG with 0:04 remaining to give the Redskins a 17-14 victory ... The Redskins used their first possession of the game to march 69 yds. in 5 plays, including a 12-yd. TD scamper by RB Stephen Davis that gave them an early 7-0 lead. The Redskins threatened again later in the quarter as Deion Sanders returned a punt 22 yds. into Philadelphia territory. But Ike Reese met him at the PE37 and jarred the ball loose with Je'Rod Cherry recovering the fumble and squelching a Redskin opportunity. As the 2nd quarter began, the Redskins offense was once again on the move, driving to the PE15. However, Husted hooked his 33-yd. FG attempt wide left to keep the score 7-0. With under three minutes remaining in the half, QB Donovan McNabb (4 of 5 for 84 yds. on the drive) and the offense got in gear, streaking 92 yds. down the field in six plays. The drive culminated in a picture-perfect 30-yd. TD pass to WR Charles Johnson, who beat CB Darrell Green down the sideline. Midway through the 3rd quarter Husted once again hooked a FG attempt wide left, this one from 42 yds. out. With the miss, the Eagles offense came back on the field and proceeded to march towards the Redskins end zone. McNabb was a perfect 6 of 6 for 53 yds. during the 11-play, 68-yd. drive as he hit WR Na Brown with a 8-yd. TD strike to give the Eagles the 14-7 lead. The Redskins then took the ensuing possession down the field to try to answer right back, but FS Damon Moore intercepted QB Brad Johnson at the PE7. However, Moore fumbled the ball on the return and WR James Thrash recovered as the Redskins had new life at the PE15. When RB Skip Hicks bolted into the end zone from 3 yds. out, the game was again tied, 14-14, with just over ten minutes to play. The Eagles looked to have a gift at the WR24 with just under three minutes left in the game as Sanders fumbled yet another punt return. The Redskins challenged the ruling on the field, contesting that Sanders was down before the fumble. The officials, with the help of instant replay, overturned the call on the field and gave the ball back to the Redskins. The Eagles defense held strong, including a sack by DE Hugh Douglas, to force the Redskins to give up the ball with under a minute to play. McNabb, in an attempt to throw the ball away however, was intercepted by Green, who returned it to the PE19. Davis then appeared to lose a fumble deep in Eagles territory as the Redskins jockeyed for better FG position. But the officials ruled that Davis was down by contact and that the whistled had blown, thus making the play non-reviewable. Husted then came on for the game-winning kick.

NOTES: RB/KR Brian Mitchell moved past Marcus Allen into 5th place on the NFL's all-time list for combined net yards with 17,682 ... RB Darnell Autry played in his first NFL game since 12/21/97 when he started for the Chicago Bears against Tampa Bay ... Redskins WR Irving Fryar, a former Eagle, left the game on a stretcher in the 3rd qtr. with a bruised nerve in his right shoulder.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 33, ARIZONA 14
SUN DEVIL STADIUM • 38,293

For the first time since 1995, the Eagles came away from Sun Devil Stadium with a 33-14 win to capture their 400th regular season victory. The offense controlled the clock (39:34 time of possession), churning out 391 total yards while the defense quelled Jake Plummer's late-game comeback attempt ... The Cardinals began the game with a drive that pushed into Phila. territory. However, as Cardinals WR David Boston took the hand off on an end around, he was met by LB Carlos Emmons and DT Hollis Thomas for a 17 yd. loss. In the process, Thomas stripped the ball and DT Corey Simon recovered the fumble to give the Eagles their first possession of the game at the AC45. That turnover set up a 2-yd. TD run by RB Stanley Pritchett. On their next possession, the Eagles embarked on a 14-play, 54-yd drive capped by a 31-yd. FG by David Akers. Later in the quarter, facing a 4th and 4, head coach Andy Reid called on Akers again. However, it wasn't for kicking, as Akers took a no-look flip toss from holder Koy Detmer and darted 15 yds. for the first down. On the very next play, RB Brian Mitchell took the hand off from McNabb and rolled out looking to throw. Mitchell's pass, slung back across the field to a wide open McNabb, fell incomplete. Three plays later, McNabb atoned for his drop as he scored from 3 yds. out to give the Eagles a 17-0 half-time lead. The Eagles continued to roll at the start of the 2nd half with a 58-yd. drive that appeared to end with a TD catch by rookie WR Todd Pinkston. However, the play was challenged by Arizona and overturned by instant replay, saying that Pinkston's knee had hit the ground before his feet were down in the end zone. Undaunted, McNabb struck back on the very next play as he found TE Chad Lewis for a 9-yd. TD to put the Eagles up 24-0. With the game winding down and his team trailing, Jake Plummer was in his element, which is when he is most dangerous. On successive possessions, Plummer hit Boston for a 70-yd. TD strike and RB Michael Pittman from 10 yds. out to cut the Eagles lead to 24-14 midway through the 4th qtr. With the momentum clearly in Arizona's favor, the Eagles moved swiftly (71 yds. in 5 plays), highlighted by a 59-yd. catch-and-run by WR Charles Johnson that moved the ball to the AC1. From there, Darnell Autry plunged into the end zone to push the lead to 30-14. The Eagles defense, with the help of a sack by Hugh Douglas, halted Plummer's last ditch effort for a comeback in the waning minutes. Akers' 29-yd. FG off the right upright finished the scoring.

NOTES: McNabb completed his first 8 passes en route to a then-career-high 70.6 completion percentage ... The Eagles registered 28 first downs, their best output since moving the chains 30 times vs. Washington on 10/8/95 ... While using a running back by committee approach, the Eagles amassed 172 yards on the ground, including 64 by Autry, who made his first start since 1997 ... With 2 FGs, Akers was 10-10 on the season and surpassed Eddie Murray's club record of nine successful attempts to start the year set in 1994 ... FS Brian Dawkins returned to the lineup after missing 3 games due to appendicitis.

PHILADELPHIA 13, CHICAGO 9
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,553

Philadelphia improved to 5-3 with a grinding 13-9 win over the Chicago Bears at Veterans Stadium as the Eagles tenacious defense forced seven punts and an INT during 13 of the Bears' offensive possessions ... After both teams traded punts throughout most of the 1st quarter, David Akers got the Eagles on the board with a booming 51-yd FG with 11 seconds remaining. On the fourth play of the 2nd quarter, Eagles LB Mike Caldwell slammed Bears QB Cade McNown to the ground to end the drive as he scrambled outside in his attempt to obtain a first down. McNown would leave for the remainder of the game with a separated left shoulder and be replaced by Jim Miller. Miller proved to be less effective as the Eagles defense continued to fly around the field, refusing to give up much in the way of yards. In fact, the Bears were forced to punt on six of their seven first half possessions and failed to cross the 50-yd. line. With a little over three minutes remaining in the half, McNabb guided the offense 77 yds. in 9 plays (7 of 8 for 74 yds. passing) culminating in a 3-yd. TD toss to TE Jeff Thomason to secure a 10-0 lead at the half. On the Bears' first possession of the 2nd half, Miller attempted to pass deep into Eagles' territory, but the ball was tipped up by CB Troy Vincent and intercepted by FS Brian Dawkins. Dawkins returned the ball 30 yds. to set up the offense on an 11-play, 53-yd. scoring drive that ended with a 29-yd. FG by Akers. At the start of the fourth quarter, the Eagles defense was gunning for their first shutout of the season. However, the Bears offense began to methodically move the ball and chip away at the 13-0 deficit with three field goals by Paul Edinger. The Bears pass-happy offense got the ball with 1:04 remaining in the game and a chance to drive the field for the win. But the Eagles defense slammed the door to protect the victory as Vincent knocked down a hail-mary pass attempt in the end zone as time expired.

NOTES: With his two FGs on the day, K David Akers improved to 12 of 12 on the season and has hit 13 straight dating back to last season to break the club record of 12 consecutive FGs held by Gary Anderson (1996) and Sam Baker (1966-67) ... The Eagles have held their last six opponents to 17 points or less for the first time since the first six games of the 1981 season ... In their two games against the NFC Central for the year, the Eagles defense held both Green Bay (2) and the Bears (3) to five FGs and no TDs.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2000
NY GIANTS 24, PHILADELPHIA 7
GIANTS STADIUM • 78,087

The Eagles could not exact revenge on an earlier season loss as they fell to the New York Giants for the second time in the 2000 campaign, 24-7, at a wind-swept Giants Stadium. The Giants controlled the clock with a punishing ground game by RBs Tiki Barber and Ron Dayne and efficient passing attack by QB Kerry Collins ... The Giants took their second possession and marched 74 yds. in 5 plays through the swirling snow flurries to take a 7-0 lead as Dayne plunged into the end zone from 1 yd. out. Throughout the 1st half, the Eagles offense was not able to move the ball into scoring position. After a three-and-out from their own 4 yd. line, the Eagles were forced to punt within two minutes to go. P Sean Landeta sent a high, spiraling kick to the PE 47 where the ball was downed without a return. However, a 15-yd. unsportsmanlike conduct call against LB Ike Reese brought the ball to the PE 37. From there the Giants only needed 3 plays to find the end zone as Collins hit WR Amani Toomer on a slant route for a 27-yd. TD and a 14-0 lead. After a 25-yd. return by Brian Mitchell on the ensuing kickoff, QB Donovan McNabb drove the offense down the field to the NYG30 on three successive passes to RB Stanley Pritchett and an 11-yd. QB keeper. With 0:08 remaining in the half, K David Akers came on to attempt a 48-yd. FG into the teeth of a gusty wind. His booming kick sailed wide right and the score remained 14-0 in favor of the Giants at the half. Coming out of the locker room, the Eagles offense knew they had to gain back their momentum they had captured slightly at the end of the first half. McNabb began to string a few passes together and the offense looked to have started to get its wheels going. McNabb threw an out pattern to WR Charles Johnson who made a diving reception for a 9-yd. gain and would have set up a 3rd-n-1 situation on the doorstep of Giants territory. However, instant replay overturned the call on the field, saying that Johnson's elbows came down out of bounds first. The Eagles were eventually forced to punt and would never quite seize the momentum again on offense. As the 4th quarter began, K Brad Daluiso hit from 31-yds. out to give the Giants the 17-0 advantage. After a McNabb interception, the Giants drove 54 yds. in an 11-play drive that ended with RB Joe Montgomery's 4-yd. TD run to cap New York's scoring for the afternoon and increase the lead to 24-0. The Eagles got on the board with under ten minutes to play in the game with a 3- play, 51-yd. drive as McNabb found C.Johnson in the flat and he raced 25 yds. for the TD to complete the 24-7 final score.

NOTES: KR Brian Mitchell surpassed Dave Meggett to become the NFL's all-time leading punt returner (3,717 yds.) with his 57 yds. vs. the Giants ... DT Corey Simon recorded his sixth sack of the season to break the club record for sacks by a rookie, previously held by DE Mike Mamula (5.5).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 16, DALLAS 13 (OT)
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,636

Another chapter was written in the annals of the Eagles-Cowboys rivalry as David Akers drilled a game-winning 32-yd. FG in overtime to complete a 16-13, come-from-behind thriller at Veterans Stadium. A fierce 4th quarter rally led by QB Donovan McNabb helped the Eagles secure the season sweep of Dallas ... The Eagles used their opening possession to set up Akers for a 40-yd. FGA. Kicking into the swirling wind, Akers pushed the ball slightly left. Later in the stanza, the Cowboys drove to the PE11, however, QB Randall Cunningham, making his first return to the city where he spent 11 stellar seasons as a pro, was flushed from the pocket by DE Mike Mamula and threw an errant pass that was intercepted by FS Brian Dawkins in the end zone. After a McNabb INT on the ensuing possession, the Cowboys drove for a TD as RB Emmitt Smith ran in from 7 yds. out. The Cowboys would take that lead into half time and throughout most of the 3rd quarter before Tim Seder made it 10-0 with a 48-yd. FG. The score would remain the same until late in the 3rd quarter when one play seemed to change the tide in favor of the Eagles. An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by CB Ryan McNeil (removing his helmet), on an unsuccessful third down conversion gave the Eagles new life and allowed them to drive 63 yds. on 11 plays for Akers' 34-yd. FG to cut the lead to 10-3. On the Eagles next possession, Cowboys FS George Teague picked off McNabb at the DC 5. However, a defensive holding call on McNeil negated the INT and once again gave the Eagles new life. After a 23-yard scramble, McNabb flared a screen pass to RB Darnell Autry, who sprinted the remaining 23 yds. for the TD and the 10-10 tie as the 4th quarter reached the halfway point. With 2:20 remaining, Cunningham fired a bomb deep in Eagles territory in the direction of WR James McKnight. The pass was INT'd by CB Troy Vincent, but the officials ruled that he had interfered with McKnight, thus giving the Cowboys a 1st-and-10 at the PE12. But the Eagles defense refused to yield a TD and forced a 27-yd. FG by Seder as the Cowboys grabbed a 13-10 lead with 1:55 left to play. With their backs to the wall, the Eagles offense embarked on a well-orchestrated two-minute drive, highlighted by a juggling 16-yd. catch by WR Charles Johnson, a 19-yd. McNabb sprint, and a one-handed grab by RB Brian Mitchell on a key third-down play. With 15 seconds remaining, Akers completed the 12-play, 54-yd. drive with a 34-yd. FG to send the game into OT. The see-saw battle continued into the extra session. After winning the coin toss, the Eagles drove to the DC36 and looked ready to seize the game. But McNabb's pass ricocheted off of TE Chad Lewis' hands and into the arms of LB Barron Wortham to bring the drive to a grinding halt. But the Cowboys gave the ball right back as RB Robert Thomas fumbled a handoff by Cunningham that was recovered by Eagles S Tim Hauck at the DC48. Four plays later, a 22-yd. catch-and-run by Autry off a screen pass set the stage for Akers' heroics.

NOTES: The Eagles swept the Cowboys for the first time since 1990. The sweep was also the first of an NFC East opponent by Philadelphia since 1996 (NY Giants) ... Starting at LDE for a hobbled Mamula (foot), Brandon Whiting responded with a memorable outing, recording 14 tackles (2 for a loss), 1.5 sacks, and a forced fumble by Cunningham while going against Cowboys all-pro RT Erik Williams ... With 92 combined net yards, KR/RB Brian Mitchell became the 5th player in NFL history to surpass the 18,000 yard mark ... This game was the first time in 83 meetings that the Eagles and Cowboys played in overtime. The Eagles last OT win was vs. Washington on 10/8/95 (37-34).

PHILADELPHIA 26, PITTSBURGH 23 (OT)
THREE RIVERS STADIUM • 56,702

For the second straight week, the Eagles overcame a 10-point, 4th-quarter deficit to win in overtime, 26-23, as David Akers kicked the game-winning 42-yd. FG. QB Donovan McNabb's poise in the 4th quarter and the extra session against a top-notch Steeler defense led the way ... Akers gave the Eagles a lead late in the 1st quarter with a 26-yd. FG set up by a 38-yd. INT return by CB Bobby Taylor. The Eagles then took their first drive of the 2nd quarter 78 yds. in 11 plays as McNabb found TE Jeff Thomason from 2 yds. out for a 10-o lead. The scoring toss marked the first time in 21 straight quarters that the Steelers defense had surrendered a TD. Two Kris Brown FGs in the last three minutes of the half cut the Eagles lead to 10-6. To start the 2nd half, the Eagles went 48 yds. in eight plays to set up a 45-yd. FG by Akers to increase the lead to seven. After both defenses slugged it out for the middle portion of the quarter, the Steelers scored their first TD of the contest late in the 3rd when RB Jerome Bettis rumbled 7 yds. to tie the game at 13. The crucial fourth quarter began with the Steelers defense striking first. LB Joey Porter's 32-yd. return for a TD off a fumble by RB Stanley Pritchett gave the Steelers their first lead of the game at 20-13. The Eagles looked to answer the Steelers by driving into FG range. However, Akers' 38-yd. attempt banged off the left upright. The Steelers took the ensuing possession the other way for a 40-yd. FG by Brown to give them a 23-13 lead with 3:42 left to play. After struggling for the better part of three-quarters, the Eagles offense took to the field once again facing one of the AFC's best defenses and responded with the start of a memorable comeback. McNabb (4 of 4 for 44 yds.) calmly led the offense 57 yds. in only 4 plays as he hit RB Brian Mitchell on a swing pass for the 13-yd. TD to bring the Eagles to within three points with 2:29 remaining. The Eagles attempted an on-sides kick and recovered, but were penalized for touching the ball before it traveled 10 yds. Trying again from five yds. back, the Eagles recovered as Tim Hauck pounced on the loose ball at their own 32-yd. line. With no time outs and less than two minutes to play, McNabb (5 of 8 for 31 yds.) again marched the offense down the field to the PS24. As the game clock ticked helplessly down from 0:15, Akers and the FG unit rushed onto the field to tie the game as time expired to force OT. The Eagles won the coin toss and elected to receive. For the third straight possession, McNabb, with the help of a key 16-yd. catch-and-run by Pritchett, drove deep into Steelers territory. Akers came on with 10:51 remaining to complete the remarkable come-from-behind win.

NOTES: The Eagles won back-to-back OT games for the first time in franchise history. Going back to 1990, Akers became the first kicker to boot the game-tying FG as time expired in regulation and then the game-winning FG in OT in back-to-back games ... With 134 kickoff return yds., Mitchell surpassed Mel Gray on the NFL's all-time list. With his 4th quarter TD reception, Mitchell registered a rushing TD, a receiving TD, a punt return TD and a KO return TD this season and became only the second player in NFL history (Gale Sayers) to accomplish that feat twice in a career (Mitchell first did it with the Redskins in 1997) ... McNabb set a career high with 55 pass attempts.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 34, ARIZONA 9
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,356

The Eagles used a 34-9 thumping of the Arizona Cardinals at a frigid Veterans Stadium to move into sole possession of first place in the NFC East with an 8-4 record. QB Donovan McNabb carved up the Arizona secondary by hitting 10 different receivers as he threw for a TD and ran for another, while the defense racked up eight sacks in a dominating performance to lead the Eagles to their first series sweep of the Cardinals since 1995 ... Down 3-0, the Eagles opened the 2nd quarter with a 12-play, 64-yd. drive as McNabb hit on 6 of 7 passes for 61 yds. to set up a 38-yd. FG by David Akers. After turning the ball over deep inside Arizona territory twice (an INT by McNabb and a fumble by FB Cecil Martin), the Eagles offense was able to punch one in as the half was nearing its end. With 1:35 to play in the half, McNabb and company, with the assistance of a pass interference penalty on CB Corey Chavous, drove 48 yds. in six plays to take a 10-3 lead as McNabb hit TE Jeff Thomason for a 1-yd. TD. As the teams headed for the locker room, the Eagles had seized the momentum, but the challenge would be to carry it over into the second half. And they did just that with a sustained march down the field on their first possession of the 3rd stanza. Traveling 65 yds. in 15 plays, the Eagles chewed up 8:32 of clock as McNabb darted into the end zone from 7 yds. out for a 17-3 lead. With their first possession of the final quarter, McNabb (4 of 5 for 59 yds.) continued to pick apart the Cardinals defense with a 9-play, 62-yd. drive leading to a 46-yd. FG by Akers. After stymieing the Cardinals offense all afternoon, the Eagles defense was rewarded with points of their own as LB Mike Caldwell picked off QB Dave Brown, who was replacing a battered Jake Plummer (back, rib and thumb injuries), and sprinted 26 yds. for a TD and a commanding 27-3 lead. RB Darnell Autry's 1-yard TD burst capped off the scoring for the afternoon.

NOTES: The Eagles have not been in first place this late in the season since they were tied with the New York Giants (9-4) in Week 13 of the 1989 campaign. They last had sole possession of the top spot this late in the season in 1988 when they captured the division title ... The Eagles amassed eight sacks in a game for the first time since 10/13/96 vs. NYG ... FS Brian Dawkins and LB Jeremiah Trotter each had two sacks for the first time in their career ... Before Arizona's TD scoring drive late in the 4th quarter, the Eagles defense had only allowed 94 total yds. of offense ... The Eagles registered a three game winning streak for the first time since 1996 when they won four straight (10/13-11/3) ... Coupled with their sweep of Dallas, the Eagles swept two NFC East opponents for the first time since 1995 (NYG and Arz).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 23, WASHINGTON 20
FedEx Field • 83,284

For the second time this season, the Eagles and Redskins staged a classic smash-mouth NFC East war with first place in the division hanging in the balance. This time Philadelphia came away from FedEx Field with the 23-20 win. Riding QB Donovan McNabb's 125-yd. rushing performance and a tough red-zone defense, the Eagles retained the top spot in the division ... The Redskins opening possession looked to have stalled at their 34 yd. line, but a defensive delay of game call brought the punt team off the field and gave QB Jeff George another shot. Two plays later, George hit WR James Thrash for a 36-yd. TD to give the Redskins the early 7-0 lead. Likewise, the Eagles first possession looked to have ended with a punt, but Thrash muffed P Sean Landeta's kick and LS Mike Bartrum recovered the loose ball at the WR11. Two plays later, McNabb hit TE Jeff Thomason for a 3-yd. TD toss to tie the game. As the 2nd quarter began, the Eagles were in the midst of a 15-play, 71 yd. drive highlighted by a 26-yd. McNabb run down the sideline in which he hurdled a would-be tackler to set up David Akers 27-yd FG. On the ensuing Redskins possession, CB Al Harris INT'd a George pass and raced 38 yds. to the WR5. However, LB Carlos Emmons offsidelined penalty nullified the play. The Eagles held and forced a punt. But the Eagles gave the ball right back to the Redskins as CB Champ Bailey intercepted McNabb. Washington proceeded to take a 14-10 lead as George hit TE Stephen Alexander on a 19-yd. TD pass late in the 2nd quarter. Six minutes into the 3rd quarter, the momentum shifted over to the Eagles as George fumbled a snap and FS Brian Dawkins recovered the loose ball at the WR21 where the offense took over. In one of the most exciting plays of the year, McNabb faked the handoff, exploded around the left side avoiding a diving DE Bruce Smith, juked FS Mark Carrier with a shoulder-fake and dragged S Matt Stevens into the end zone for a 21-yd. TD run and a 17-14 lead. The Redskins answered on their next possession as Eddie Murray tied the score with a 26-yd. FG. McNabb (5-6 for 37 yds.) responded with a 12-play, 57-yd. drive ending with a 33-yd. FG by Akers to give the Eagles the lead once again, 20-17. The potent Redskins offense took the next possession and drove down the field towards the end zone. However, the Eagles defense threw up a road-block that changed the composure of the entire game. A pass interference call in the end zone brought the ball down to the PE3. With the aid of another penalty, George and company had six cracks at the end zone from inside the PE3, only to be turned away each time. Murray came on to kick the 20-yd. FG to knot the game at 20. Facing a third-and-ten at the PE39 and the crowd in a frenzy, McNabb bolted out of the pocket and sprinted 54 yds. to the WR7. Akers then nailed a 30-yd. FG with 3:00 remaining to give the Eagles a 23-20 lead. As time wound down, the Redskins drove into FG range, but Murray's 44-yd. attempt drifted wide right and fell short.

NOTES: McNabb's 125 rushing yds. was the most by an NFL quarterback since the Bears Bobby Douglass had 127 yds. (12/17/72). His total was the 6th best rushing effort by a QB since 1940.

TENNESSEE 15, PHILADELPHIA 13
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,639

In a hard-hitting battle of first place teams in a tense, playoff-type atmosphere at frigid Veterans Stadium, Al Del Greco belted a 50-yd FG, his fifth of the afternoon, as time expired to hand the Eagles a 15-13 defeat and drop them a half-game behind the New York Giants in the NFC East. As both teams were stymied all day by stellar defensive play, Eagles QB Donovan McNabb led a dramatic, gut-wrenching TD drive in the final minutes to give Philadelphia the lead before Del Greco's heroics gave the defending AFC champions the win ... The Eagles defense set the tone on the Titans very first play from scrimmage as CB Bobby Taylor stripped TE Frank Wycheck of the ball and DE Brandon Whiting recovered at the Titans 30. Six plays later, David Akers nailed a 23-yd. FG for an early 3-0 lead and all the scoring in the 1st quarter. The Titans took the lead after consecutive 15-play drives ended with 26-yd. and 42-yd. FGs, respectively, by Del Greco. However, McNabb (5 of 6 for 63 yds.) drove the offense 63 yds. on 7 plays in 1:12 to set up a 40-yd. FG by Akers to tie the game 6-6 as both teams headed for warmth of the locker rooms at halftime. The Titans came out in the 3rd quarter and took their opening possession 76 yds. to the PE 4. The Eagles defense stood tall and denied Tennessee the end zone to force a 22-yd. FG by Del Greco. With 5:28 left to play in the game, the Titans added to their lead with a 44-yd. FG by Del Greco to bring the score to 12-6. Plagued by poor field position throughout the second half, the Eagles offense was hard pressed to get anything going. However, as they have proved during the course of the season, McNabb and the Eagles refused to quit when their backs were against the wall. This time he got help from the wide receivers as it was their turn to step to the forefront. Facing a 3rd-and-10 from the PE23, McNabb found a wide-open WR Todd Pinkston, who had slipped behind the coverage, for a 45-yd. gain. Two plays later, facing a crucial 3rd-and-3 at the TT25, McNabb hit WR Na Brown with a 5-yd. laser for the conversion. After an 18-yd. pass to WR Charles Johnson brought the ball to the TT2, McNabb scrambled around right tackle into the end zone for the TD. With Akers' PAT, the Eagles took a 13-12 lead with 3:15 remaining. With the frenzied crowd now at a fevered pitch, the Eagles defense forced a three-and-out to get the ball back. But the Eagles offense also went three-and-out and were forced to punt, thus giving the Titans one final shot. Tennessee's offense picked its way up the field with no time-outs remaining to set up Del Greco's game winner.

NOTES: The Eagles defense did not yield a TD for the fourth time this season (at GB, vs. Chi., at Pitt.) ... The Titans franchise recorded their first win over Philadelphia in seven overall attempts ... During Philadelphia's two scoring drives at the end of each half, McNabb was 9 of 13 passing for 138 yards combined ... With seven points, Akers surpassed the 100-point mark (106) for the season ... Titans QB Steve McNair suffered a twisted ankle and knee and left the game on Tennessee's first drive of the second half, but returned on the next possession.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 35, CLEVELAND 24
BROWNS STADIUM • 72,318

A career day by QB Donovan McNabb led the Eagles into the playoffs for the first time since 1996 with a 35-24 win at a gray and cold Browns Stadium. McNabb scorched the Browns for 390 yards and four TDs through the air as Philadelphia held off a fiery Browns team to secure their first 10-win season since that last trip to the playoffs... On their first possession of the game, the Eagles found themselves pinned inside their own 2-yd. line after a perfectly placed punt by Chris Gardocki. However, McNabb (5 of 5 for 94 yds) and TE Chad Lewis (3 catches for 70 yds.) led the Eagles down the field to set up RB Darnell Autry's 3-yd. TD run. The Browns answered on the next drive as they shuffled former Eagle QB Doug Pederson, WR Kevin Johnson and WR Dennis Northcutt at the quarterback position to keep the Eagles defense on their heels. Pederson eventually found WR David Patten for a 9-yd. TD pass. Brian Mitchell fumbled away the ensuing kickoff to give the Browns the ball at the PE 37. Seven plays later, RB Travis Prentice plunged in from the 1-yd. line for the TD to give the Browns a 14-7 lead. McNabb brought the Eagles right back with a 42-yd. completion to WR Todd Pinkston and a 24-yd. TD strike to WR Torrance Small to knot the score once again. The Eagles then took the 21-14 lead on their last possession of the half as the offense drove 80 yds. in 9 plays with McNabb hitting Small for the 8-yd. TD. Philadelphia picked up right where they left off as the 2nd half began with McNabb leading the offense to the end zone. This time it was WR Charles Johnson's turn to get in on the scoring as McNabb found him on an 11-yd. TD toss to increase the Eagles lead to 28-14. The Eagles defense brought two consecutive Cleveland drives to a halt with interceptions when FS Brian Dawkins picked off K.Johnson's pass and CB Troy Vincent came down at the PE2 with Pederson's deep pass attempt. It was the second INT that the Eagles offense turned into their final points of the afternoon as McNabb orchestrated yet another 98-yd. scoring drive culminating in his fourth TD pass of the game, a beautiful 38 yd. to a streaking C.Johnson. The score gave Philadelphia their largest lead at 35-14 heading into the 4th quarter. The Browns added a 29-yd. FG by Phil Dawson and another 1-yd. TD run by Prentice to cut into the lead 35-24. But CB Bobby Taylor put an end to the Browns comeback bid on their final drive as he stepped in front of Pederson's pass at the PE3 to insure the win and lock up a post season berth.

NOTES: TE Chad Lewis had a career-high 100 receiving yds. on 5 receptions. It was the first time that an Eagles TE eclipsed the 100-yd. mark in a regular season game since Keith Jackson (12-126-3TDs) did it at Wash. (9/17) in 1989 ... CB Troy Vincent hauled in his 20th INT as an Eagle ... Along with career highs in passing yds. (390) and TD passes (4), McNabb, with 307 completions on the season, eclipsed Randall Cunningham's club record of 301 ... QB Doug Pederson threw for a career-high 309 yds. against his former team.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 24, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 16, CINCINNATI 7
VETERANS STADIUM • 64,902

Controlling the clock and applying a smothering defense, the Eagles grinded out a 16-7 Christmas Eve win over the visiting Cincinnati Bengals to wrap up the regular season with an 11-5 record to secure the honor of hosting a NFC Wild Card game. Philadelphia's offense held the ball for 37:10 with a solid mix of both the run and pass while the defense did not allow any points until late in the final quarter ... After the defense forced Cincinnati to a three-and-out on their first drive, the Eagles offense embarked on an 18 play, 61 yd. drive that ended with a 32-yd. FG by David Akers. The drive saw newly acquired RB Chris Warren (5 carries for 21 yds.) pounding the ball both up the middle and off the tackles, fighting for every possible yard, and a TD pass from Donovan McNabb to WR Torrance Small nullified by an offensive interference penalty. The Eagles defense got the ball back on the Bengals' ensuing possession when CB Troy Vincent pried the ball loose from WR Danny Farmer on a reception and CB Bobby Taylor recovered the fumble at the CB39. McNabb wasted no time getting the ball into the end zone as he executed a picturesque play-fake to freeze the secondary and found WR Charles Johnson streaking down the sideline for a 39-yd. TD strike and a 10-0 1st quarter lead. Both team's defenses buckled down and denied each other points for nearly the rest of the half. But Akers hit a 45-yd. FG with just over a minute to play to give the Eagles a 13-0 lead going into the locker room. The second half saw more of the same defensive play as the Eagles fought to preserve their first shutout of the season. Following a Warren fumble at the PE18, the Bengals had their best chance to get on the board. However, the defense denied Cincinnati the end zone and watched as Neal Rackers' 31-yd. FG attempt banged off the left upright as the 3rd quarter ended scoreless. The final stanza began with DT Hollis Thomas recovering his own forced fumble on his sack of QB Scott Mitchell. McNabb led the offense 69 yds. down to the CB3, but Warren, refusing to go down, was stripped of the ball and the Bengals recovered. Sensing a shift in momentum, Cincinnati's offense looked to seize it. But LB Carlos Emmons made sure that they wouldn't as he came down with an INT off of Taylor's deflection. The Bengals finally cut into the Eagles lead with under four minutes to play in the game when Mitchell found WR Peter Warrick for a 17-yd. TD pass. FS Brian Dawkins corralled Cincinnati's onside kick attempt and the Eagles offense drove to set up a 33-yd. FG by Akers to lock up the victory.

NOTES: The Eagles finished the season 11-5 for the first time since 1992 ... TE Chad Lewis, who signed a four-year contract one day earlier, celebrated with a career-high 9 receptions (66 yds.) ... WR Charles Johnson tied a career high with his 7th TD reception ... The Eagles offensive line (LT Tra Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Bubba Miller, RG Jermaine Mayberry and RT Jon Runyan) started together as a unit through all 16 games for the first time in club history since the league went to a 16-game schedule ... In finishing the season with 121 points, K David Akers broke the Eagles all-time single season record set by K Paul McCadden (116).

NFC WILD CARD GAME

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 31, 2000
PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,813

In their first postseason game since 1996, the Eagles dominated Tampa Bay on both offense and defense and rang in the year 2001 with a 21-3 Wild Card Playoff victory on New Year's Eve. QB Donovan McNabb, in his first playoff start, accounted for all three TDs (two passing and one rushing) and found 10 different receivers while hitting on 73 percent of his passes behind the ferocious play of his offensive line. Meanwhile, the defense held Bucs star RB Warrick Dunn to 1 yd. rushing and denied the Bucs the end zone en route to the win ... Both teams played it pretty close to the vest throughout the 1st quarter with Eagles P Sean Landeta and Bucs P Mark Royals dueling for field position. Tampa Bay struck for the first, and what turned out to be, their only points of the game when Martin Gramatica booted a 29-yd FG early in the 2nd quarter. On the Bucs next possession, the Eagles defense threw up an absolute roadblock (6 plays, -7 yds.) to shift the momentum in what had been a sluggish 1st half. On 3rd-and-19 from the TB25, DE Hugh Douglas bolted around the right end and pummeled QB Shaun King to force the ball loose. DE Mike Mamula fell on the fumble to put the offense in business at the TB 15. Five plays later McNabb scored on a 5-yd. draw play to give the Eagles a 7-3 lead, one that they would not relinquish. Philadelphia's defense forced a quick 3-and-out to put the ball back in McNabb's hands with under two minutes to play in the half. The Eagles offense cruised 69 yds. in 8 plays on the strength of McNabb's arm (5 of 7 for 63 yds.) as the drive culminated with a 5-yd. TD pass to WR Na Brown in the back corner of the end zone for a 14-3 half time lead. RB Brian Mitchell, coming in for an injured Stanley Pritchett, became the go-to guy on the drive with 3 catches for 33 yds. Throughout the 1st half, the Eagles were slowly wearing down the Bucs on both sides of the ball. The offense took the opening possession of the 2nd half and traveled 59 yds. to set up David Akers for a 36-yd. FG. Though he pushed it wide right through a swirling wind, the Eagles had managed to chew up 7:45 of the 3rd quarter. And when the Eagles defense forced the Bucs to punt after just six plays, their only offensive snaps of the quarter, that brought an already tired Tampa Bay defense back on the field. This time the Eagles responded with a 9-play, 57-yd. scoring drive that featured the tough running of RB Chris Warren and a 2-yd. TD strike to TE Jeff Thomason from McNabb to finish the scoring.

NOTES: The Eagles did not surrender a TD to the 3 NFC Central clubs (GB, TB and Chi) they have played this season ... McNabb's 24 completions and 2 TD passes tied Randall Cunningham for 2nd place on the club's all time single-game playoff list in those respective categories ... Douglas had 2 sacks, setting a new Eagles single-game postseason record ... Philadelphia had possession for a total of 12:18 of the 3rd quarter and held the Bucs to 50 yds. rushing on 19 attempts (2.6 avg.) ... Pritchett did not return to the game after he suffered a broken tibia.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

SUNDAY, JANUARY 7, 2001
NY GIANTS 20, PHILADELPHIA 10
GIANTS STADIUM • 78,765

On the doorstep of the NFC Championship, the Eagles season came to an end at Giants Stadium with a 20-10 defeat to their NFC East rivals to the north. The Giants, on the strength of Ron Dixon's opening kickoff return for a TD and CB Jason Sehorn's INT return for a TD, beat Philadelphia for a third time this season ... Playing in their first divisional playoff game since 1995, the Eagles got off to an inauspicious start when Dixon took the opening kickoff and raced 97 yds. for a TD. Faced with an uphill climb just 17 seconds into the game, the Eagles looked to have their first first down of the contest late in the opening quarter when McNabb hit WR Torrance Small. But in his fight to gain extra yardage, Small was stripped of the ball by FS Shaun Williams and CB Dave Thomas snatched the ball out of the air at the PE34. Philadelphia's defense tightened and forced a 37-yd. FG by Brad Daluiso as the Giants increased their lead to 10-0 at the beginning of the 2nd quarter. The Eagles defense turned New York away once again in Eagles territory on their next possession as DT Hollis Thomas recovered RB Ron Dayne's fumble at the PE28. The turnover parade between the two teams continued a few series later. Following a sack and forced fumble by DE Michael Strahan, DE Cedric Jones recovered the ball and put the Giants offense in business at the PE27. However three plays later, FS Damon Moore jarred the ball loose from RB Tiki Barber and recovered the fumble at the PE14. Yet, four plays later this time, Sehorn somehow rolled on the ground while defending a pass to Small, tipped the ball to himself for the INT, jumped up and darted 32-yds. for the TD. Trailing 17-0 with under two minutes to play in the half, the Eagles needed to put some points on the board before halftime. After RB Brian Mitchell returned the ensuing kickoff 34-yds. to the 50-yd. line, Philadelphia marched 40 yds. in 7 plays to set up a 28-yd. FG by David Akers. Midway through the 3rd quarter, the Eagles were handed a golden opportunity to get back in the game that their tenacious defense had kept so close. WR Amani Toomer fielded Sean Landeta's booming 53-yd. punt in Giants territory, but Moore punched the ball out and LS Mike Bartrum came up with the ball at the bottom of the pile to give the Eagles offense a shot at the NYG32. However, Akers pushed his 30-yd. FG wide right and the score remained 17-3 as the quarter came to an end. The Giants opened the final quarter with a 13-play, 88-yd. drive that ended with a 25-yd. FG by Brad Daluiso. With under three minutes left, Jason Bostic blocked Brad Maynard's punt and returned it to the NYG10. Three plays later, McNabb hit Small with a quick pass on the line of scrimmage and Small bolted into the end zone to cut the Giants lead in half, at 20-10. Akers' onside kick attempt was gobbled up by the Giants and brought an end to the Eagles season.

NOTES: The Eagles defense did not allow a touchdown in the 2000 postseason, surrendering only 3 FGs in two games ... SS Damon Moore recorded 6 tackles, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery ... DB James Bostic's 4th quarter blocked punt was the first by an Eagle since William Thomas blocked one at Denver on 10/4/98.

WHAT WAS THE PLAYOFF BOWL?

Following the 1961 and 1966 seasons, the Eagles participated in the Playoff Bowl. If case you never heard of the Playoff Bowl, here's the scoop. From 1960-1969, the National Football League took each conference's runner-up and matched them up in a consolation game at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Eagles, by the way, lost both of their Playoff Bowl appearances (28-10 to Detroit in 1962 and 20-14 to Baltimore in 1967).

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the preseason opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles games on foreign soil are as follows:

August 5, 1978	vs. New Orleans	.....L	.....7-14	..Mexico City (Estadio Olimpico)
August 6, 1989	vs. Cleveland	.....W	.....17-13	..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
July 28, 1991	vs. Buffalo	.....L	.....13-17	..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
August 1, 1993	vs. New Orleans	.....L	.....28-16	..Tokyo, Japan (Tokyo Dome)

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEW

1947 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME CHICAGO 28, EAGLES 21 DECEMBER 28, 1947 AT COMISKEY PARK

A frozen field in Comiskey Park did not prevent an offensive game as the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 in their first NFL championship playoff. The Cardinals' Elmer Angsman set a record by rushing for 159 yards in 10 carriers, scoring twice on 70-yard runs. Philadelphia's Tommy Thompson set a record for pass completions (27-44-297-1TD) and returned a punt 75 yards for another TD. The Cardinals' Charlie Trippi also scored 2 TDs on a 44-yard run from scrimmage and a 75-yard punt return. Steve Van Buren, the NFL's leading ground gainer with 945 yards during the season, gained only 26 yards on 18 carries due to the slippery conditions.

The Cardinals, who had started the game wearing basketball shoes, had a 7-0 lead after Trippi's 44 yard TD run with 8:38 left in the first quarter. The Eagles themselves changed to sneakers after being penalized for illegal equipment, but trailed 14-0 before scoring on Thompson's pass to William (Pat) McHugh, who caught a 36-yard pass on Chicago's 17 and completed a 53-yard play.

Philadelphia never got closer than a touchdown as the Cardinals held leads of 21-7 and 28-14 in the second half. The Birds did lead 357-336 in total offense, partly because Paul Christman of the Cardinals completed only 3 of 14 passes for 54 yards as the Eagles' eight-man defensive line succeeded in pressuring Christman into hurried passes.

1948 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME EAGLES 7, CHICAGO 0 DECEMBER 19, 1948 AT SHIBE PARK

After many years of waiting, the Philadelphia Eagles finally won the National Football League championship. Playing in a driving snowstorm at Shibe Park, Coach Greasy Neale's team triumphed over the champion Chicago Cardinals 7-0.

A protective tarpaulin was not removed from the playing field in Shibe Park until 30 minutes before the kickoff but snow blanketed the entire field by game time.

Of the 36,309 persons who bought tickets, a total of 28,864 braved the storm with the temperature below the freezing mark to watch the title game, which began a half hour later than scheduled because the snow made removal of the tarpaulin a difficult operation. The sidelines were marked by ropes tied to stakes and conditions were so adverse that commissioner Bert Bell decreed that while the 10-yard first-down chain would be used, there would be no measuring; referee Ron Gibbs would be the final judge of all first downs.

The Eagles started the game's only touchdown drive near the conclusion of the third quarter when the Cardinals' Elmer Angsman fumbled a handoff from Ray Malouf that Eagles' lineman, Frank (Bucko) Kilroy, recovered on the Cards' 17. Three plays into the fourth qtr, Steve Van Buren scored on a five-yard run and Cliff Patton kicked the PAT.

Van Buren had pounded out 98 yards in 26 carries. Bosh Pritchard rushed for 67 yards and Thompson ran mainly up the middle for 50 yards. The rugged weather conditions made it almost impossible to complete passes. Thompson was 2 out of 12 for 7 yards while Malouf threw 3 of 8 for 35 yards. Kicking was just as difficult; Patton attempted 3 field goals but made none while Pat Harder of Chicago bobbled his only attempt.

1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME EAGLES 14, LOS ANGELES 0 DEC. 18, 1949 AT LA MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Philadelphia Eagles, in the NFL title game for the third consecutive year, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 14-0 as half-back Steve Van Buren set records with 31 carries and 196 yards gained. Van Buren achieved the record after a storm, that began 24 hours before kickoff, dropped almost two inches of rain on the muddy Los Angeles Coliseum field. A crowd of more than 60,000, which would have set a playoff record, was expected before the storm but only 22,245 attended the game.

With all-pro Van Buren carrying the ball, the Eagles were able to control possession for 70 plays on 274 rushing yards. The Rams rushed for only 21 yards and did not advance the ball further than the Eagles' 26-yard line. The Birds scored their first TD in the second quarter on a 31-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Thompson to Pete Pihos.

The Eagles' other score came in the third quarter as defensive end Leo Skladany blocked Bob Waterfield's punt from the 5-yard line. The snap of the ball was high and Waterfield had no chance to get the kick away. Skladany picked up the bouncing ball on the 2-yard line and scored.

The victory marked the Eagles' second straight shutout in the NFL title game, climaxing the rise that began when Earle (Greasy) Neale was hired as coach in 1941.

1960 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME EAGLES 17, GREEN BAY 13 DECEMBER 26, 1960 AT FRANKLIN FIELD

The Philadelphia Eagles overcame leads of 6-0 and 13-10 by the Green Bay Packers to score a 17-13 victory for their first NFL championship in 11 years. Bill Quinlan intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass on the first play of the game and Eagles' rookie Ted Dean fumbled on the Birds' second possession. Five plays later the Packers' Paul Hornung kicked a 20-yard field goal. Another Hornung field goal increased Green Bay's lead to 6-0 in the second quarter before Philadelphia got on the scoreboard with a two-play, 57-yard drive. Van Brocklin passed 22 yards to Tommy McDonald, then teamed with McDonald on a 35-yard TD pass.

A Bobby Walston field goal for Philadelphia made it 10-6 at the half, but Green Bay took a 13-10 lead in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter. Bart Starr's 7-yard pass to Max McGee marked the Packers' only touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Dean returned the ball 58 yards to the Packers' 39. Dean then completed the drive with a 5-yard TD run. Chuck Bednarik endured 58 minutes of the contest — playing center on offense and linebacker on defense.

1980 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME EAGLES 20, DALLAS 7 JANUARY 11, 1981 AT VETERANS STADIUM

With only two healthy wide receivers and a passing game that was hampered by frigid temperatures and blustery winds, the Eagles rode a tremendous defensive effort and Wilbert Montgomery's 194-yard rushing performance to the NFC title. The Birds never trailed after Montgomery's 42-yard scoring burst early in the first period, although Dallas managed a 7-7 tie at halftime after their only long drive of the day in the middle of the second period. The Eagles continued to dominate after intermission as fullback Leroy Harris (10 carries, 60 yards) complemented Montgomery's effort. Dallas managed only 202 yards of total offense and 11 first downs to the Eagles 340 yards and 19 first downs.

SUPER BOWL XV OAKLAND 27, EAGLES 10 JAN. 25, 1981 AT NEW ORLEANS SUPERDOME

The Eagles' first Super Bowl appearance was a disappointing one as they fell behind early and could never play the type of football that had made them champions of the National Football Conference. Behind quarterback Jim Plunkett, the game's MVP, the Raiders jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first period. The first score, a two-yard pass from Plunkett to Cliff Branch, was set up by an Oakland interception and return to the Eagles' 30-yard line with less than two minutes elapsed in the opening period. Plunkett followed late in the period with an 80-yard scoring pass to running back Kenny King. The Eagles trailed by 14-3 at halftime and by 24-3 after three periods before Keith Kreple scored the only Philadelphia touchdown on an 8-yard pass reception from Ron Jaworski. A first period apparent touchdown toss of 40 yards from Jaworski to Rodney Parker was nullified by an illegal motion penalty against the Eagles. That score, if it had stood, would have made the score 7-7 at the time and might have gotten the Eagles untracked.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

In 1987, the Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll was created in order to pay tribute to outstanding members of the organization. Automatically included at the inception of the Honor Roll were the 11 members of the Hall of Fame who played all or part of their NFL careers with the Eagles.

CHUCK BEDNARIK

#60

Center/Linebacker
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1949-62

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1967
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

As long as there is football in Philadelphia, the name Chuck Bednarik will long be remembered. "Concrete Charley" played in 253 of a possible 256 games with the Eagles during his illustrious 14-year career. Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, he played in eight Pro Bowl games (an Eagles record) and was named the most valuable player of the 1954 Pro Bowl. Although the Eagles won the league championship in 1949, Bednarik's rookie year, his star shined brightest in 1960 when he played every minute at both center and linebacker during the Birds 1960 NFL Championship victory over Green Bay. In addition to his Hall of Fame status (he was inducted in 1967 with former Eagles coach Earle "Greasy" Neale as his presenter), Bednarik was named to the Eagles' "All-Time Team," and was cited by the nation's press as "Lineman of the Decade" for the 1950s. Born May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, PA, Bednarik was an All-America selection at the University of Pennsylvania in 1948 before joining the Eagles as their first selection in the 1949 NFL draft.

DE BENNEVILLE "BERT" BELL

Owner
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1933-40

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1963
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The first owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, Bell proved to be a man of extraordinary vision. As owner of the Birds (1933-40), co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1941-46), and as NFL commissioner (1946-59), Bell was responsible for instituting the college draft and setting up visionary television policies, including the implementation of home-game blackouts. In 1933, he moved the Frankford Yellowjackets to Philadelphia and renamed them the Eagles, in honor of the symbol of President Franklin Roosevelt's National Recovery Act. In 1946, Bell moved the NFL office from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala Cynwyd, PA where it remained until his death on October 11, 1959. Bell played and coached at the University of Pennsylvania where he led the Quakers to the Rose Bowl in 1916. A founder of the Maxwell Football Club, Bell was born February 25, 1895, in Philadelphia. He was elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously in 1963. A member of the inaugural H.O.F. class, Bell was represented by Steelers owner Art Rooney at the induction ceremony.

BILL BERGEY

#66

Middle Linebacker
Arkansas State
Years with Eagles: 1974-80

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

The 6-foot-4, 245-pound product of Arkansas State regularly set the defensive tempo of a game with his intimidating, hard-hitting tackles and his explosive quickness. After coming to the Eagles in a 1974 trade with Cincinnati (in exchange for Philadelphia's first round picks in '77 & '78 as well as a second round pick in '78), Bergey recorded nearly 1,200 tackles in seven seasons as an Eagle. He was a key factor in the Birds' rise to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. His play also earned him Eagles' MVP status three times and trips to the Pro Bowl on four occasions. Bergey was born February 9, 1945 in South Dakota, NY.

#28

Free Safety
Texas
Years with Eagles: 1969-76

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1993

One of the most versatile players in Eagles' history, Bill Bradley played eight years (1969-76) with the Birds as a defensive back, punter, and kick returner. As of today, over 20 years after the end of his Eagles career, Bradley remains tied for the team's all-time lead in career interceptions (34) and still ranks first on the Birds' all-time interception yardage list (536). As an Eagle, Bradley earned three trips to the Pro Bowl (following the 1972-74 seasons) and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons (1971 & 1972). It was in that 1971 campaign that Bradley set an Eagles' single-season record for most INTs and most INT return yards (11-248). Originally the Birds' third round draft choice out of the University of Texas in 1969, Bradley also handled the majority of the Birds' punting duties for six of his eight years with the club, averaging 39.0 yards per punt.

TOM BROOKSHIER

#40

Defensive Back
Colorado
Years with Eagles: 1953, 1956-61

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

An inspirational player who could turn a game around with one big play, Tom Brookshier spent seven seasons with the Eagles and collected 20 interceptions along the way. Originally a tenth-round pick from the University of Colorado, Brookshier made an immediate impact with 8 interceptions in his rookie season of 1953. Then, after a two-year stint in the Air Force, the defensive back returned to the Eagles and twice earned all-pro honors - first in 1959, and again in 1960 as a member of Philadelphia's world championship team. Upon retiring as a player, Brookshier entered the broadcasting field and went on to be teamed with Pat Summerall on CBS's telecasts of NFL games including the 1980 Super Bowl.

JEROME BROWN

#99

Defensive Tackle
Miami (FL)

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1996

Years with Eagles: 1987-91

A two-time Pro Bowl selection and a member of one of the most dominant defensive lines in NFL history, Jerome Brown's life was cut short at the age of 27. Brown was killed in a tragic automobile accident on June 25, 1992, in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The Eagles' first round draft pick out of the University of Miami in 1987, he quickly became a fan favorite not only because of his outstanding ability but because of the passionate leadership and competitive fire he displayed. Despite playing only four years in the NFL, Brown will long be remembered as a key figure on the Birds' legendary 1991 defense - a unit that led the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, against the run, and vs. the pass. He capped the 1991 season by joining fellow linemates Reggie White and Clyde Simmons as starters in the Pro Bowl. Born February 4, 1965 in Brooksville, he went on to attend that town's Hernando High.

#22

Running Back
Ball State

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1990

Years with Eagles: 1960-67

One of the most electrifying players in Eagles' history, Brown holds the club record for longest kickoff return with his 105-yarder vs. Cleveland in 1961. Brown also set a then-NFL record for all-purpose yardage in a season with 2,428 yards in 1963. Today, he still shares the NFL record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a single game with two vs. Dallas in 1966 (90 and 93 yards). Originally a 27th round draft pick of Green Bay in 1959, Brown spent time on the Packers taxi squad that year and was then signed by the Eagles as a free agent just after the start of the 1960 season. Brown finished his Eagles career in 1967 as the third leading rusher in club history in terms of both yards (3,703) and TDs (29) on 805 carries.

#17

Wide Receiver
Southern

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Years with Eagles: 1971-83

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79). During his tenure with Philadelphia, Carmichael led the Birds in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles 1980 club that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders. Carmichael was born on Sept. 22, 1949 in Jacksonville, FL, where he attended William Raines High. On April 28, 1998, Harold was named the Eagles' Director of Player and Community Relations.

JIM GALLAGHER

Executive
Temple
Years with Eagles: 1949-1995

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

He never put on a uniform, he never played a down. But many would say that "Jimmy Gal," an Eagles executive from 1949-95, was a first round pick in his own right. In that remarkable 46-year span, Gallagher worked with 17 head coaches and for 12 owners, GMs, and team presidents. During that time, Gallagher saw the Eagles capture two NFL titles and one NFC crown, and watched the Birds play home games in four different stadiums. A native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Northeast Catholic High School and an Army veteran of the Korean War, Gallagher joined the Eagles in 1949 and worked nearly every phase of the operation until being named personnel director in 1957. Gallagher went on to serve stints as director of public relations and associate director of sales and marketing before being named the club's director of alumni relations/traveling secretary in 1990. It was in that capacity that Jimmy Gal served until retiring on August 1, 1995.

BILL HEWITT

End
Michigan
Years with Eagles: 1936-39, 1943

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Considered by many to be the best "two-way" end the league ever produced, Hewitt was the first player to be named All-NFL with two different teams - the Bears (1933, '34, '36) and Eagles (1937). A Michigan Wolverine and a member of the 1933 NFL Champion Chicago Bears before he joined the Eagles, the fast, elusive Hewitt revolutionized the end position. Nicknamed "Stinky," Hewitt is known for pitching a lateral to Bill Karr for the touchdown that won the 1933 championship game for the Bears. He also was credited with inventing many trick plays. Hewitt, who played without a helmet until a rule change forced him to wear headgear, was born October 8, 1909, in Bay City, MI. He died in an automobile accident on January 14, 1947, at the age of 37. Twenty four years after his death, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was represented by his daughter Mary Ellen Coccozza at the induction ceremony and was formally presented for induction by Upton Bell, then the GM of the New England Patriots.

RON JAWORSKI

#7

Quarterback
Youngstown State
Years with Eagles: 1977-86

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1992

Few players have had as great an impact on their teams as Ron Jaworski had on the Eagles of the late 1970s and early 1980s. After coming to the Birds in a 1977 trade with the Los Angeles Rams (in exchange for the rights to TE Charles Young), "Jaws" went on to enjoy a stellar 10-year career in Philadelphia. With the Eagles he set seven club passing records, including career marks for completions (2,088), touchdowns (175), and yards (26,963). After leading the Eagles to the NFC title in 1980 and a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders, the Youngstown State product earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named the NFL Player of the Year by UPI and the Maxwell Football Club. Known throughout his career as one of the NFL's most durable quarterbacks, Jaworski earned the respect of his peers by starting 116 consecutive regular season games. His outstanding career, coupled with his involvement in numerous charitable and civic events, undoubtedly made him one of the most popular Eagles of all time. Jaworski was born March 23, 1951 in the Buffalo suburb of Lackawanna, NY, and attended Lackawanna High.

SONNY JURGENSEN

#9

Quarterback
Duke
Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1983
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Despite spending the last 10 years of his career with the Redskins, Christian Adolph (Sonny) Jurgensen is remembered not only as one of the finest quarterbacks ever to wear an Eagles uniform, but as one of the best passers in NFL history. A fourth round draft pick of the Eagles in 1957, Jurgensen - a future Hall of Famer himself - was a backup to another Hall of Fame quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin, on the Birds' 1960 NFL Championship team. The following year the rifle-armed red-head took over as the Eagles starting signal caller and threw 32 TD passes, a single-season mark which still stands as a club record. In that stellar 1961 season he completed 235 of 436 passes for 3,723 yards. Jurgensen went on to finish his NFL career in 1975 with 32,224 passing yards. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1983, he was formally presented for induction by Edward Bennett Williams, then the President of the Washington Redskins.

OLLIE MATSON

#33

Halfback
San Francisco
Years with Eagles: 1964-66

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1972
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

In his career with Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Philadelphia, Matson compiled some very impressive numbers - 12,844 combined net yards and 5,173 yards rushing. He was selected to participate in five Pro Bowls and, in fact, earned MVP honors for his effort in the 1956 Pro Bowl. Matson was traded to the Rams by the Chicago Cardinals for nine players in 1959. The speedy halfback was also a medal winner in track at the 1952 Olympics. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1972, Matson was formally presented as an inductee by Joe Kuharich, his former coach with the Eagles as well as with the Cardinals and the University of San Francisco.

TOMMY McDONALD

Wide Receiver
Oklahoma

Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1998
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

A game-breaking receiver from the University of Oklahoma, the 5-foot, 9-inch, 170-pound McDonald dazzled NFL fans with his acrobatic receptions for 13 seasons. McDonald led or shared the team lead in receptions from 1959-62. In Philadelphia's 1960 NFL championship season he registered 13 TDs among his 64 receptions. In fact, McDonald capped that season with 3 catches, including a 35-yd TD in the Championship Game victory over Green Bay. He led the league in TD receptions in 1958 (9, tie) and in 1961 (13) when he also paced the NFL with 1,144 receiving yards. Born July 26, 1934, in Roy, NM, McDonald starred at Oklahoma despite having lost half of his right thumb in a freak motorcycle accident in high school. As a senior, he won the Maxwell Award as the nation's top collegian and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting behind Paul Hornung and Johnny Majors. He was a third round selection of the Birds in 1957 and went on to be named to the Pro Bowl six times (five times as a starter). McDonald finished his NFL career with the Cowboys (1964), Rams (1965-66), Falcons (1967) and Browns (1968). On August 1, 1998, McDonald was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY

#31

Running Back
Abilene Christian

Years with Eagles: 1977-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Montgomery joined the Eagles as a quiet, shy, sixth round pick out of Abilene Christian in 1977. Eight years later, he finished his Eagles' career as the club's all-time rushing leader in terms of yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465). After playing for Detroit in 1985 (he was traded to the Lions that preseason), Montgomery retired as the 16th leading rusher in NFL history with 6,789 yards. Despite his smallish 5-foot-10, 195-pound frame, Montgomery won the hearts of Philadelphia fans with his dogged determination. His 194-yard effort in the 1980 NFC Championship Game victory over Dallas, including a 42-yard touchdown on the Birds' first offensive play, will never be forgotten. Montgomery scored 58 career TDs as an Eagle (45 of which came on the ground) including 14 combined TDs rushing and receiving during the 1979 season. He also tallied 6 playoff touchdowns, including 3 in the 1980 post-season when he averaged 104 rushing yards per game in three performances (including the Super Bowl against Oakland). Montgomery played in the Pro Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons.

EARL "GREASY" NEALE

Head Coach
West Virginia Wesleyan

Years with Eagles: 1941-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1969
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

After coaching extensively on the collegiate level at Marietta, Washington and Jefferson (1922 Rose Bowl team), Virginia, and West Virginia, Neale broke into the NFL in 1941 and quickly turned the Eagles into contenders. He went on to lead the Birds to three straight Eastern Division crowns and back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and 1949. Neale was, in particular, recognized as a master of the T formation. From 1918 to 1922, just prior to beginning his coaching career, Neale was a scrappy outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies. He was born in Parkersburg, WV, on November 2, 1891. Two years after Neale served as presenter when former Eagle great Chuck Bednarik was inducted into the Hall of Fame, Bednarik returned the favor, presenting Neale to the assemblage at Canton, OH, upon the latter's induction into the Hall in 1969.

An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight seasons leading the NFL in receptions. The All-America selection from the University of Indiana may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Pihos came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, Pihos caught 373 passes, a figure that still ranks third on the Eagles' all-time list (his 61 TD catches also remain tied for third best in team history). He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). In between, he tied for the league lead in catches with 60 in 1954. After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, he made it six times in as many seasons.

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

One of the most graceful and athletic wide receivers ever to play the game, Mike Quick electrified Eagles fans for nine years. During that time, the former first round pick from North Carolina State distinguished himself as one of the NFL's premier pass catchers. A fixture among the league leaders during his career, Quick also became a regular selection to the Pro Bowl. Five consecutive times (following the 1983-87 seasons), the Hamlet, NC, native was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers. At the conclusion of his brilliant career, Quick had etched his name into the Eagles record books, ranking among the club's all-time career and single-season receiving leaders in terms of catches, yardage, and TDs. Today, Quick serves as color analyst on radio broadcasts of Eagles games.

Acquired off waivers at the start of the 1956 season from Detroit for $100, the 6-foot-1, 210-pound Retzlaff went on to earn all-pro honors five times as an Eagle. At the time of his retirement, Retzlaff was the Eagles' all-time leader in receptions (452) and receiving yardage (7,412). Today, over 30 years later, those figures still stand as the second highest totals in club history. A 22nd round draft pick of the Lions in 1953, Retzlaff also scored 47 touchdowns in his career and was selected to the Pro Bowl five times. When Philadelphia acquired his services, coach Buck Shaw converted the fullback into one of the league's all-time best tight ends. Nicknamed "the Baron," Retzlaff went on to receive both the Washington Touchdown Club's Pro Football Player of the Year Award and the Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award in 1965 when he was 66-1,190-10TDs receiving. Instrumental in founding the NFL Player's Association, Retzlaff later served as the Birds' general manager from 1969-72.

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ringo began his career as the Packers' seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Despite being small for an offensive lineman, his quickness and determination enabled Ringo to earn all-pro honors eight times and play in 10 Pro Bowls. He also played in three NFL championship games. Ringo, who ignored numerous injuries to start in a then NFL-record 182 straight games from 1954-67, played on Green Bay's 1961 and 1962 World Championship teams. After 11 years with the Packers, Ringo spent his final four seasons as a player with the Eagles. Following his playing career, Ringo moved into the coaching ranks and became head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 1976-77. He was born November 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J., and inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981 with Willard "Whiz" Rinehart, his former coach at Phillipsburgh (NJ) High, serving as his presenter.

A first round draft pick of the Eagles in 1973 (the 3rd player selected overall) this University of Texas product became one of the cornerstones of an offensive line that helped lead the Eagles to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. Sisemore ranks fifth on the Eagles' all-time career list in both number of seasons (12) and games played (156). During his illustrious career, Sisemore started 127 consecutive games and was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1981 seasons. Overall, he teamed with fellow tackle Stan Walters, QB Ron Jaworski, RB Wilbert Montgomery and WR Harold Carmichael (all members of the Eagles Honor Roll) to power an offense that helped Philadelphia reach the playoffs five straight times from 1978-82.

A 1971 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Van Brocklin was a member of one of one of the Hall's most distinguished classes - a group that included Jim Brown, Vince Lombardi, Andy Robustelli, and Y.A. Tittle. Acquired in a 1958 trade with the LA Rams that many recall as the biggest deal in Eagles history, Van Brocklin went on to quarterback the Birds for three years. The fiery signal caller helped turn a last place Eagles club into one that eventually captured the NFL championship in 1960. As such, "The Dutchman" teamed with future Hall-of-Famer Chuck Bednarik to pace the Eagles to their third NFL championship with a 17-13 victory over Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers at Franklin Field. This storybook ending would garner Van Brocklin the league's MVP award and provide a fitting end to his playing career as both he and head coach Buck Shaw announced their retirements at the end of the season. In addition to ranking with the league's all-time great quarterbacks, "Dutch" was an accomplished punter, twice leading the league in punting average. An All-America selection at the University of Oregon, he went on to participate in 10 Pro Bowls. Van Brocklin threw for 23,611 yards and 173 TDs in an NFL career that spanned 12 seasons. He then went on to be the head coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1961-66) and Atlanta Falcons (1968-73).

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The Birds' first round draft choice (the fifth player selected overall) out of Louisiana State in 1944, Van Buren signed his first contract, in the amount of $4,000, with an Eagles team that had never finished above fourth place. They finished second in Van Buren's rookie season, were runners-up two more years and then won three straight division titles. In 1948 and '49, the Birds won consecutive league championships and Van Buren cemented his place in history as one of the most talented backs ever to play the game. Van Buren, nicknamed "Wham-Bam" by his teammates for his quick and punishing running style, twice surpassed the 1,000-yard mark while capturing the NFL rushing title on four occasions. In the 1948 title game against the Chicago Cardinals, he scored the game's only touchdown in a blinding snow storm. A year later, he waded through mud and torrential rains in the Los Angeles Coliseum to rush for 196 yards while helping the Eagles defeat the Rams and capture the title once again. His 205 yards rushing vs. Pittsburgh earlier that same season (1949) still stands as a club record. Similarly, his 5,860 career rushing yards and 77 touchdowns both rank second in Eagles history. A five-time all-pro, Van Buren was inducted into the Pro Football's Hall of Fame in 1965 with fellow Hall member Clark Hinkle, a former Packers running back, serving as his presenter. In 1987, Van Buren was named to the Eagles Honor Roll. Seven years later in 1994, he was also selected to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team. Van Buren was born December 28, 1920, in Tela, Spanish Honduras.

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1994

Dick Vermeil, the Eagles head coach from 1976-82, will long be remembered as a workaholic and perfectionist ... but he will be remembered most as a winner. A success at every level of coaching, from his first high school head coaching job in 1960, to a stint at UCLA in 1974-75 and, of course, with the Eagles, Vermeil attacked his profession with a degree of passion rarely seen. A native of Calistoga, CA, in the Napa Valley, Vermeil became a hero in Philadelphia where he coached the Eagles into the playoffs five consecutive times from 1978-82, including a trip to Super Bowl XV as NFC Champions in January of 1981. Vermeil's Eagles earned that trip to the Super Bowl after capturing the NFC East division title with a 12-4 regular season record and after defeating their arch rival, the Dallas Cowboys, in the NFC title game at Veterans Stadium. After one more season at the Birds' helm, Vermeil resigned, moving into the broadcasting booth before returning to the NFL in 1997 as head coach of the St. Louis Rams. After leading the Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV, he retired once again.

Originally a ninth round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1972, Walters joined the Eagles via trade in 1975. The Syracuse University product went on to play in 122 consecutive regular and post-season games for Philadelphia. Walters provided solid play at left tackle throughout his career, anchoring the team's offensive line (along with fellow Honor Roll member Jerry Sisemore), especially during the successful seasons of the late 1970s and early 1980s. A key member of the Birds' 1980 NFC championship squad that participated in Super Bowl XV, Walters was honored by his peers following the '78 and '79 seasons when he was selected to the Pro Bowl. After his playing career, Walters became a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Eagles games until 1997.

A two-time All-America selection at Fordham where he was the center on the famed 'Seven Blocks of Granite' line, Wojciechowicz was the Detroit Lions' top draft pick in 1938. One of football's original "iron men" for eight years with the Lions, Wojciechowicz joined the Eagles in 1946 as a defensive specialist and helped the Birds capture back-to-back NFL championships in '48 and '49. Known for his exceptionally wide stance as a center, "Wojje" also was an outstanding pass defender who pilfered 16 passes during his pro career. Born August 12, 1915, in South River, NJ, Wojciechowicz organized the National Football League Alumni Association. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1968, "Wojje" was presented for induction by Earle "Greasy" Neale, the Eagles head coach during his five seasons with Philadelphia.

1948 AND 1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1999

No NFL team before or since ever posted consecutive shutouts in championship play. No NFL team can claim to be more dominant over a two-year period. The Eagles won back-to-back NFL Championships in 1948 and 1949, first shutting out the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, and then blanking the Los Angeles Rams, 14-0. The foundation of this team began in 1947, when the Eagles lost to the Cardinals, 28-21, in the championship game. Under legendary head coach Greasy Neale, Philadelphia finished the 1948 regular season with a 9-2-1 record and took on the Cardinals in the championship game with a foot of snow covering Shibe Park. Superstar running back Steve Van Buren scored the game's only touchdown on a 5-yard TD run, while the defense limited the Cards to just 6 total first downs. The Eagles continued their dominance in 1949 with an 11-1 record in the regular season and a victory over the Rams in the championship game on a rain-soaked Los Angeles Coliseum field. Van Buren again led the Eagles' offensive charge as he rumbled for 196 yards on 31 carries. In those two seasons, the Eagles outscored their opposition 761-290. They were lovingly called "the duffel-bag dynasty." Many players were young men who had served their country in World War II and returned home trying again to settle into a regular life. Said Hall of Fame LB Chuck Bednarik, a rookie on the 1949 team, "I think we belong with the best teams ever. Look at what we accomplished."

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers." Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America C/LB Chuck Bednarik is a 1st round draft choice. The Eagles win their 3rd straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 win over the Los Angeles Rams.

1950 — In Greasy Neale's final season as the Eagles' head coach, they finish tied for third in the American Conference with a 6-6 mark.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich is named head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction,

Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY

Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on Dec. 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from playing. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. RB Keith Byars tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. They opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost QB Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. After coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. But a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's playoff hopes. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl — DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham — out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury — as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. They finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, the NFL and the Players Association signed a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a 7-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since '83). Nonetheless, backup QB Bobby Brister led them to wins in 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

1994 — A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the team's owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Jeffrey Lurie, a Boston native and president of a Hollywood-based movie production company. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the opener, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, one need only note that just one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 — On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in numerous NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In just his first season at the helm, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season QB change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and led them to 9 wins in their final 12 games. The result was a 10-6 record and a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1992. RB Ricky Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Charlie Garner to give Philadelphia the league's 4th best rushing attack. Watters was 6th in the league in rushing with a career-high 1,273 yards and 11 TDs. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, a week later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region.

1996 — For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas on 9/30. Ty Detmer, the former Green Bay Packer and Heisman Trophy winner, led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a team-record 88) and also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters earned his fifth trip to the Pro Bowl - his second as an Eagle - with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (a league-leading 1,855). DE William Fuller again led the Birds with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return, the longest in NFL history. Prior to the season, the Birds had once again been one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in terms of free agency. The signing of Vincent from Miami, along with that of Watters from San Francisco the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '96.

1997 — After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoyer. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought them back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Injuries plagued the club as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoyer). WR Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards, including a team-record six 100-yd. games. RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive campaigns. The defensive unit's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay as they held the Pack without a TD, snapping a string of 85 straight games (including playoffs) in which they had scored a TD.

1998 — A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. In Rhodes' fourth season at the helm, the Eagles never could get on track as they slipped to 0-5 before posting their first win. RB Duce Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) as he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1981. On defense, the Eagles procured one of the league's top, young pass rushers - Hugh Douglas - in a trade with the New York Jets in March. Douglas went on to lead the Eagles and finish 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks. Along the way, Douglas tied a club single-game record with 4.5 sacks at San Diego.

1999 — Former Green Bay quarterback coach Andy Reid was named head coach on January 11th. Three months later, the club used the 2nd overall draft choice to select QB Donovan McNabb, one of the most accomplished athletes to ever come out of Syracuse. With their revamped roster, the Eagles got off to a 2-7 start, prompting Reid to insert McNabb into the starting lineup for six of the final seven contests. In his first start on Nov. 14th vs. Washington, McNabb sparked the Eagles to a 35-28 win over the Redskins. RB Duce Staley garnered his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season (career-high 1,273 yds.) en route to being named the first alternate for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. Staley accounted for a NFL-best 41% of his team's offense. New defensive coordinator Jim Johnson turned up the heat as his troops accounted for a league-best 46 take-aways, including 28 interceptions (3rd in NFL), five of which were returned for TDs (a team record). FS Brian Dawkins and CB Troy Vincent earned their first Pro Bowl team selections. Vincent's 7 INTs tied for the league lead and became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since 1972 (Bill Bradley). MLB Jeremiah Trotter established himself as a force in his first year as a starter, posting a team-best 202 tackles. Although the Eagles finished with a 5-11 record, Reid implemented a very upbeat and positive attitude as the Eagles possessed one of the youngest teams in the NFL. At season's end, there were 14 true rookies on the roster.

2000 — Philadelphia got back on the football map. After finishing the previous season at 5-11, Andy Reid, the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest, led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5. The season started with a perfectly executed onside kick by David Akers to kickoff the season opener at Dallas, leading to a 41-14 win. Although they lost the next two games, the Eagles won 10 of their next 13 contests and earned the top Wild Card spot in the NFC. A 4-0 record in November that included comeback, overtime wins vs. Dallas and at Pittsburgh and an emotional victory at Washington, vaulted them into sole possession of first place in the NFC East for the first time that late in the season since 1988. In the playoffs, the Eagles overwhelmed Tampa Bay, 21-3, before losing to the eventual NFC Champion NY Giants in the Divisional Playoffs. The stars of this team were plentiful, but none shined brighter than 2nd-year QB Donovan McNabb. When RB Duce Staley went down for the season with a foot injury in game 5, McNabb became not only the focal point of the offense, but a legitimate MVP candidate (he finished 2nd in AP voting to Rams RB Marshall Faulk), while being named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. McNabb accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards (3rd in the NFL), including 629 rushing yards (tops among NFL QBs). He broke the club's single season record for most attempts (569) and completions (307) and became the first Eagles QB since 1994 (Randall Cunningham) to throw for over 3,000 yards. TE Chad Lewis led all NFC tight ends in receptions (69) and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a starter. The defense ranked in the top ten in many categories, including fewest points allowed (15.9) and sacks (50) — the club's best output in each category since 1992. This unit featured 3 Pro Bowlers in CB Troy Vincent, DE Hugh Douglas (15 sacks, 2 in playoffs), and MLB Jeremiah Trotter. First round draft choice DT Corey Simon made an immediate impact, recording a rookie team-record 9.5 sacks. A full-time kicker for the first time in his career, Akers etched his name into the club's record book for most points (121) and most consecutive field goals made (13).

VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is a multi-purpose sports complex located in South Philadelphia. Built on a 74-acre site, the sports complex also includes a recreational park, the First Union Spectrum indoor arena, and the new First Union Center, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers. The First Union Center was built upon the former site of JFK Stadium.

The Vet was opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season and was built at a cost in excess of $50 million.

In March, 2001, the field at the astro turf field at the Vet was replaced with a new synthetic turf called NeXturf. NeXturf's design was carefully modeled after natural grass, and is also softer, more resilient, and more like natural grass in appearance, performance and texture.

In 1992, "the Bubble," an inclement weather facility, was moved from the former JFK Stadium site to a spot adjacent to the grass practice fields. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard Astro Turf field. It was installed by Air Structures International, Inc.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side were constructed in 1987 to bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 24, 1971.

In 30 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled an 131-105-2 record (including a 5-3 playoff mark). The seating capacity for football is 65,352.

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

In 1997 the Philadelphia Eagles formed the Eagles Television Network (ETN). WB17 will serve as the flagship station of ETN however other members of the Network include WTXF - FOX 29, KYW - 3, WPVI ABC 6 and in the outlying markets, WOLF - Scranton / Wilkes Barre and WPMT - Harrisburg / York / Lancaster will carry Eagles programming.

ETN combines state of the art programming with exclusive access to the field, locker room and players' personal lives. Last year ETN's line-up of programming netted them a whopping 15 regional Emmy nominations and 3 regional Emmy awards. ETN has totaled 29 Emmy nominations in 3 years and has racked up 6 awards not to mention numerous other local and national accolades.

In the year 2001, ETN will produce the following programs...

Eagles Preseason Games - The Eagles Television Network will broadcast three preseason games in 2001. Along for the broadcast is Eagles great Ron Jaworski as he will be analyzing all of the preseason action with the exception of the August 18th game @ Buffalo which will be handled by analyst, Mike Mayock. Joining Jaworski and Mayock, will be play by play announcer, Kenny Albert. WPHL (WB-17) carries the games live in the Philadelphia area. WPMT airs the games to our fans in Harrisburg, York and Lancaster, and WOLF airs the games in Scranton-Wilkes Barre. Each game is re-aired after the live broadcast on the previously mentioned Eagles Television Network affiliate station.

The Andy Reid Show presented by Penn Orthopaedics - Eagles head coach Andy Reid steps into prime time for a thirty-minute show that will air every Saturday at 10:30 p.m. throughout the football season on the Eagles Television Network flagship station, WB-17. Reid will offer his unique insights on the Eagles' upcoming opponent as well as on other topical issues related to the Eagles and the NFL. Host Dave Spadaro will join Coach Reid and special guests for a season's worth of inside information direct from the coach's office. WPMT and WOLF will re-air the show.

Sunday Wrap presented by Sovereign Bank - This Emmy-nominated half-hour show will air on Sunday evenings at 11:30 p.m. on WPVI - ABC 6, and will provide Eagles fans with the definitive source for Eagles highlights, interviews and reactions concerning that day's game. Other highlights include "locker room footage" no one else has access to, and an exclusive one on one post-game interview with head coach Andy Reid as well as the players. "The Wrap" is re-aired on WPMT.

Inside The Eagles - Hosted by defensive tackle Hollis Thomas, this weekly program gives viewers an "inside" look at the Eagles players and their lives. WTXF Fox-29 has the exclusive broadcast rights to Inside the Eagles and airs it Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. Off-the-field segments highlight the personalities and excitement that surrounds the team as ETN's cameras capture exclusive footage each week. Eagles Insider Dave Spadaro and NFL Films Director of Archives, Ace Cacchiotti, round out the talent on this fast-paced and cutting edge program.

The Verizon Wireless Donovan McNabb Show - Hosted by KYW - 3's Beasley Reese, this program will not only get you closer to the fastest rising star in Philadelphia, it will also take you inside the locker room as well as players and coaches lives. This half hour show will air every Sunday morning at 11:00am on KYW - 3 and will showcase some of the best ETN has to offer.

NFL FREE AGENCY Q&A

Q -- What are the categories of free agency?

A -- Players are either "restricted" or "unrestricted" free agents. Within the categories are also "transition" and "franchise" players.

Q -- What is the time period for free agency signings this year?

A -- For restricted free agents, from March 2 to April 16. For unrestricted free agents, transition and franchise players, from March 2 to July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later).

Q -- What is the difference between a restricted free agent and an unrestricted free agent?

A -- Players become restricted free agents when they complete three accrued seasons and their contract expires. Unrestricted free agents have completed four or more accrued seasons with an expired contract.

Q -- What constitutes an "accrued season?"

A -- Six or more regular-season games on a club's active/inactive, reserved-injured or "physically unable to perform" lists.

Q -- Other than accrued seasons, what determines a restricted free agent?

A -- He has received a "qualifying" offer (a salary level predetermined by the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the league and its players) from his old club. He can negotiate with any club through April 16. If the restricted free agent accepts an offer sheet from a new club, his old club can match the offer and retain him because it has the "right of first refusal." If the old club does not match the offer, it can possibly receive draft-choice compensation depending on the amount of its qualifying offer. If an offer sheet is not executed, the player's rights revert to his old club on April 17.

Q -- What determines an unrestricted free agent?

A -- A player with four or more accrued seasons whose contract has expired. He is free to sign with any club, with no compensation owed to his old club, through July 22. On July 23, his rights revert to his old club if it made a "tender" offer (110 percent of last year's salary) to him by June 1. His old club then has until the 10th week of the season (November 13) to sign him. If he does not sign by November 13, he must sit out the season. If no tender is offered by June 1, the player can be signed by any club at any time throughout the season.

Q -- What determines a transition player?

A -- His club must offer a minimum of the average of the top 10 salaries of last season at the player's position or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. A transition player designation gives the club a first-refusal right to match within seven days an offer sheet given to the player by another club after his contract expires. If the club matches, it retains the player. If it does not match, it receives no compensation.

Q -- What determines a franchise player?

A -- A club can designate one franchise player in any given year. The salary level offer by a player's old club determines what type of franchise player he is. An "exclusive" franchise player -- not free to sign with another club -- is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries at the player's position as of April 16, or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. If the player is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries of last season at his position, he becomes a "non-exclusive" franchise player and can negotiate with other clubs. His old club can match a new club's offer, or receive two first-round draft choices if it decides not to match.

Q -- Can a club decide to withdraw its franchise or transition designations on a player? If so, can it then use them on other players?

A -- A club can withdraw its franchise or transition designations and the player then automatically becomes an unrestricted free agent either immediately or when his contract expires. The club cannot name a new transition player (two allowed in 1993, one in 1994 and one in the final year of the CBA). It can name a new franchise player the next year. A club can, though, designate a transition player in lieu of a franchise player at any time.

Q -- What determines each team's salary cap? Is it always in effect?

A -- The salary cap is the absolute maximum each club may spend on player salaries in a capped year. For 2001, that amounts to 63 percent of leaguewide "Defined Gross Revenues" (divided by 31 teams), made up of preseason, regular-season and postseason gate receipts and radio and television rights. The cap is in effect 365 days a year. From March 2 to the day before the season begins, a club's top 51 salaried players count towards the cap, plus pro-rated signing bonuses, incentives, etc., but not base salaries of other players on the roster up to 80. Thereafter, all salaries on a club's roster count towards the cap. The maximum salary cap for 2001 is $67,405,000 per club. The minimum salary cap is $56,095,000. Player benefits are $9,903,000 per club above the salary cap number.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

Player Community Service

Philadelphia Eagles players are extremely active in the community, and participate in numerous charity and civic-related events during the football season and in the off-season as well. Events include serving as reading mentors at local schools, speaking at youth summits about the importance of staying in school and staying off drugs, and bringing children to visit training camp and the club's year-round headquarters, the NovaCare Complex.

The contributions of time and effort to the community by Eagles players is not limited to those few acts, though. The players involvement is far reaching. For example, tackle Tra Thomas literally donated his head to science when he allowed it to be molded for an exhibit at the Franklin Institute Science Museum. Running backs Duce Staley and Brian Mitchell participated in the Five Points of Life Bike ride through Philadelphia. Tackle Jon Runyan and Pro Bowl linebacker Jeremiah Trotter have donated their time and been included as supporters of Variety Club in local advertising campaigns, and linebacker Mike Caldwell donated $1000 plus $100 for every special teams tackle he made to the Special Olympics last season. Players also frequently use their free time to make phone calls to fans who may be sick or infirmed.

A number of Eagles are also involved in bettering the lives of homeless men at the Bethesda Project, a Philadelphia-area shelter. Several players donate money to the Project, and at Thanksgiving time, visit the shelter and serve food to the men there. Around the same time every year, the Eagles hold a stadium-wide food drive to benefit the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank. The year-2000 drive collected over 11,000 pounds of food, 10 times more food than ever before. Later in the holiday season, the Eagles hosted their annual Book & Toy Drive. Tens of thousands of toys were collected, and donated to the United States Marines "Toys for Tots" effort. The thousands of books collected were given to Eagles Youth Partnership and distributed to Philadelphia-area children.

LB Barry Gardner participated in Verizon's Fit to Read program and joined a D.A.R.E. officer in reading to a group of Philadelphia-area children

United Way

As part of the National Football League's partnership with the United Way, the Philadelphia Eagles work closely with the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of this nationwide charity. Every Eagles player participates in a yearly event at the beginning of the season to kickoff the United Way giving season. This past year, players attended a party with a carnival-type atmosphere at the First Union Center and played with children from local United Way agencies. Several Eagles also participate in the yearly Hometown Huddle event, which takes place in October. On this day, each NFL team partners with their local United Way to positively influence their local community. This year, the Philadelphia Eagles chose to work with Woodrock, a school-based program geared towards acceptance between races. Through trust-building games, players interacted with children in a fun, positive way.

Player Foundations

Many Eagles players are active in the community through foundations of their own. The Hugh Douglas Foundation benefits children in his hometown of Mansfield, OH, and also made a $50,000 donation to Eagles Youth Partnership to start the Eagles Book Mobile. Bobby Taylor's foundation gives scholarships to seniors at his high school and provides dinners and gifts to needy families. The foundation is also very active within his church. The Troy Vincent Foundation's primary purpose is to provide education and other services to young adults who have been involved in the legal system. The Donovan McNabb Foundation, although just recently established, has already begun helping bring awareness to Diabetes in America. Finally, Brian Mitchell has created the "Brian Mitchell Returning to your Roots Program" which supports the youth in his hometown with academic scholarships, after-school athletic programs, and holiday dinners.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

LB Barry Gardner and FB Cecil Martin went trick-or-treating with children at Temple Children's Hospital for Halloween

Coaches

Eagles coaches, including head coach Andy Reid, also donate their time to worthy causes. After being named Staples Coach of the Week, Reid attended a local assembly and spoke to high school students about the importance of staying in school. Coaches and their wives also act as reading "coaches" in local schools where they assist children learning to read. Coaches also develop individual programs for their player-position groups, and frequently take the groups into the community.

Cheerleader & Mascot Programs

The Philadelphia Eagles Cheerleaders and SWOOP, the team's mascot, work together in two ways to get children excited about reading and safety. They participate in the Cheer for Reading program, where both visit classrooms to discuss the importance of reading. In addition, SWOOP visits numerous Philadelphia-area schools with a D.A.R.E. officer and Eagles cheerleaders to inform children about the importance of staying in school and off of drugs, about the importance of staying away from strangers, and the value of staying fit.

The Philadelphia Eagles Junior Cheerleader program is designed for girls under the age of 16. It allows them to live out their dream of being an Eagles cheerleader and dance at selected Eagles home games. The youngsters are involved throughout the year, and perform a numbers of routines during the season.

Hospital Visits

Although visits to hospitals can be difficult, Eagles players and coaches frequently take time out to visit children and adults during their stay. In particular, David Akers uses each Thursday afternoon during the football season to spend time at a local children's hospital. Each week he apologizes for staying so long and keeping the staff long after their shifts have ended. He leaves each child smiling.

Practice Visits

The Eagles regularly take the opportunity to bring local children to closed practices. This kind of a visit is usually reserved for children who are generally too sick to bring to a game, and always creates lasting memories. Head coach Andy Reid always does a wonderful job of involving the team in making the day as special for the child as possible.

TE Chad Lewis (pirate), LB Ike Reese (cowboy), and WR Todd Pinkston (Elvis) visited Temple Children's Hospital on Halloween. They are joined with Josh (center), who dressed up like an Eagles fan even before finding out about the visit
